The Nomination of Letcher.

The nomination of Letcher by the Democracy of Virginia for the office of Governor of that State, is a very decisive triumph of the Hunter over the Wise faction. The opposition of the latter to Mr. Letcher has been of the most unrelenting character. The Richmond Enquirer, the organ of Gov. Wise, has teemed, day after day, for the last four weeks, with the most vindictive assaults upon Mr. Letcher. We know of no instance in which the canvass for a political nomination has been conducted with equal asperity. The chief point made by the Wise faction against Mr. Letcher was his former anti-slavery sentiments. True, he subsequently retracted all the hard and true things he had said against slavery; but the Enquirer held that, having embraced the heresy once, he was not the man into whose keeping the destinies of Virginia should be entrusted.

The nomination of Mr. Letcher may be regarded as an extinguisher upon whatever hopes Gov. Wise has heretofore indulged of a nomination by the Charleston Convention. It places him in a minority of his own party at home. Knowing the importance of the stake at issue, he fought with his accustomed resolution. But the fortune of war is against him. The star of Hunter is in the ascendant.

Capital for the West.

[From the New York Independent, 2d.]

A large amount of money is now lying idle at the East, seeking investment. A fair rate of interest, with good security, is all that is now required to unlock millions. First class bonds and mortgages, bearing 7 per cent. interest, are in good demand in this city. Borrowers of late are making negotiations to considerable extent at 6 per cent. Under such a state of things, large sums of money would go West, where the rates of interest allowed by law are higher than here, were it not that capitalists are afraid of the ingenious stay-laws and other obstructions to the speedy collection of debts with which some of the States are disgraced.

The nearer you can make a bond and mortgage in value to gold and silver, of course the better it is. If it required 12 to 24 months to convert an American eagle into something that would pass current as par with which to pay debts, such currency would be at a great discount. If every Western State would pass such a law, that bonds and mortgages, when due, could be foreclosed without the possibility of hindrance within thirty days, capital would soon be more abundant there than here. There would be a competition for such security. Real estate is the safest and best of all security, when all contracts based thereon are guarded and protected by wholesome law. One reason why money now goes a-begging in Wall street at 4 and 5 per cent., is that lenders are willing to accept of almost any rate of interest provided their money can be had on demand. Bonds and mortgages well secured and properly attested by men clothed with proper authority, would be almost as current as bank bills, and therefore could be disposed of at short notice.

[The facility for collecting on bonds and mortgages, which the Independent advocates, already exists in Illinois; and nearly all loans made here upon that class of securities are based upon an express stipulation whereby the lender is empowered to sell (without benefit of redemption on the part of the borrower) in from ten to sixty days after maturity, if default is made in payment.—Eds. Douglas' Journey South—How it is Viewed by his Friends.

[Correspondence of the Evening Post.]

Washington, Nov. 30, 1858.

Mr. Douglas is very little talked of. His Southern tour with his wife is understood to be a movement wholly to try the pulse of the Southern people, and all his Anti-Lecompton Democratic colleagues express their great surprise at his conduct, and the hope that the South will repudiate him and send him back with a lesson learned. Mr. Douglas' talk about not breaking from the Democratic organization is the wildest nonsense in the world, not to say ingratitude towards his Anti-Lecompton friends who have been re-elected to Congress. Every man out of Illinois—Davis of Indiana, Hickman and Montgomery of Pennsylvania, Clark and Haskin of New York—all broke from their party and appealed to the people. Mr. Forney, in Pennsylvania, made the gallant fight he did by opposing the Buchanan Democracy and following the people's flag. Mr. Broderick's friends (for the Senator himself was confined to his room during the whole campaign by reason of illness) made the fight in California squarely against the Buchanan Democracy, and dwindled it down to ghostly dimensions. Then is it not supremely absurd for Mr. Douglas to turn against such true and tried friends, by thus talking about sticking to the Democratic organization? The thing is still more absurd when we consider the fact that these men, in every instance except California, where the fight was not fully and fairly made, were triumphantly sustained by the popular vote of the people, while Douglas himself, who made the sharpest battle, was defeated in his own State before the people by nine thousand majority! From all that I can learn authoritatively, Mr. Douglas has started South without consultation with his Congressional Anti Lecompton friends. I have reason to believe that they feel mortified at Mr. Douglas' present conduct, and will not sustain him if he turns his back upon the North, or attempts to obtain the Charleston nomination.

The Iowa State Railroad Convention.

We are in receipt of the proceedings of this Convention, up to noon of the second day of its session. Only fourteen counties were represented. The two following reports from the business committee were being warmly discussed:

MAJORITY REPORT.

Resolved, That this Convention is in favor of a judicious system of State aid to such railroads as are of State importance, to an amount not exceeding $8,000,000.

2. That this Convention believe that the Tennessee system of State aid is a judicious and safe one, and ought to be adopted by our Legislature, with such modifications as may be necessary to adapt it to our Constitution; and that our Legislature should submit such a system to the people at as early a day as possible, for their adoption.

3. That this Convention should memorialize the Governor of the State to call a special session of the Legislature, for the purpose of carrying out the principles embodied in the foregoing resolutions, at as early a day as practicable.

MINORITY REPORT.

The undersigned, members of the committee instructed to report as to the action proper to be taken by the convention, being unable to coincide with the views of the majority of the committee as expressed in the reported resolutions, respectfully beg leave to submit a minority report, and in so doing desire to state that, on arriving at the conclusions herein expressed, that they have not been unmindful of the grave and weighty importance of the subject under consideration in this committee.

The question whether it be expedient for the State to abandon its former policy, and to incur an indebtedness to aid in the construction of railroads, and if so, to what extent, and in favor of what companies, is one which so much concerns the people of the entire State and their future welfare, that it is to be regretted we cannot have something like a full expression of their sentiments.

But, waving all consideration of policy or expediency, the undersigned find such insuperable objections in the Constitution to giving or granting the credit of the State to aid associations or corporations to carry on any work of internal improvement, that in their judgment, all attempts to obtain the same without changing the Constitution would be futile, and that to call an extra session of the Legislature to pass laws without a change in our fundamental law, would be an useless expense.

We therefore submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That in the judgment of this convention, State credit can only be given to companies or corporations to aid in the construction of railroads, by first obtaining the requisite change in our State Constitution.

The following resolution was also before the Convention, offered as an amendment to the majority report:

Resolved, That should it become the policy of the State that in the future the credit of the State shall be used to aid in the construction of railroads, justice will require that the debts already contracted by cities and counties for the construction of railroads, shall be assumed by the State.

The Tennessee system, recommended by the majority report, is thus sketched by the Davenport News:

Some years ago the State of Tennessee loaned her credit to her railroads by the issuance of State Bonds. These bonds were issued by the State as a railroad progressed; when a railroad had built, say a mile of its track, the State would loan it so many bonds, and take security on the mile of track built. In this way the money loaned by the State was properly applied, the roads completed, and the State never has had to pay a dollar of interest on her bonds, and the loan is so amply secured that she never will have to pay a dollar of the principal.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Message—The Tariff of 1846—Sir Gore Ouseley's Mission to Central America—Cause of the Indian War in New Mexico—Sambo Everywhere and in Everything.

[From our own Correspondent.]

Washington, Dec. 2, 1858.

Three days ago Mr. Buchanan submitted the Message to the Cabinet, not for revision by them, but by way of courteous hint of those things which they are not to say in their reports. The outside impression is that the President says nothing very decided concerning Cuba, and that he recommends in substance the northern half of Mexico as an offset to the twelve millions of dollars in private claims trumped up against her. On the subject of the tariff, it is understood, recommends a virtual return to the tariff of 1846, modified only by specific duties in respect to certain articles, and home valuations where fraud in the foreign invoices is apprehended. There are two reasons for this course. Mr. Buchanan does not care to break with the South on this important question, and, secondly, he has something of the pride of consistency in adhering to a measure adopted while he was in Polk's Administration. Of the deplorable condition of the Treasury there can be no question; the receipts last week were less than a half a million, while the drafts issued were over a million and a half; that is, the payments were nearly four times as great as the income. And while the weekly deficiency is going on, a most enormous amount of appropriations are totally suppressed by the mere arbitraay dictum of the President and Secretary Cobb. All the public buildings in the West and the interior of the country, but fifteen are suspended. The appropriations of $500,000 for the New York Post Office and Court House, and of $250,000 for that in Philadelphia, are nullified. Thus you see the Constitutional power of Congress over the expenditures is reduced to a shadow.

The country is a little curious to learn by what sophistries Mr. Cobb will cover up the failure of all his predictions last year. The tariff discussion is coming up with all the interest and excitement of past years.

The Government is much concerned about Sir Gore Ouseley's mission to Central America. There was no communication between him and the Administration while here. The position of the British Government at this time is adherence to the Clayton and Bulwer treaty, in which the American Government was overreached. The British do not favor further negotiation with the United States, but intend to make a convention with Nicaragua covering the Transit route. If this object is effected before the Cass-Yrizarri treaty shall be confirmed, it will throw American diplomacy quite into an eclipse.

Judge Trumbull has been here a week or ten days. Col. Curtis, of Iowa, arrived a few days since. His triumph over a most determined rally of the African Democracy, is a source of peculiar gratification to his friends. As there is nothing to be done at this session respecting the organization, members will be late in arriving.

It is probable that two thirds of the people of the United States do not know that a cruel, wanton, Indian war is now raging in New Mexico, and a still less number are aware of the extraordinary causes or pretexts of this war. It is one of the results of an attempt by army officers to overturn the will of God, so defined by the once celebrated expounder, Daniel Webster, by establishing slavery upon the top of those peaks from which he said it had been excluded by divine enactment. Last summer, Colonel Brooke, in command at Fort Defiance, lost a "boy," as he says, that is a black man, who was a slave where Brooks brought him from. The death of this slave was attributed to the neighboring Indians, who were required, on pain of extermination, to deliver up the alleged murderer. They refused to do it. It is a remarkable fact, that there has never appeared any account of the death of this slave. There has yet been presented no proof whatever that the "boy" was killed by the Indians or anybody else, and it is quite likely, nay, from the present information, before the public, it is a good deal more likely that the "boy" gave his proprietor leg bail and took refuge among the brethren nearest his own color; so that the war probably arises from the Indians not understanding the constitutionality of the fugitive slave act. Be it observed that Col. Brooks himself could have killed this slave at his pleasure without the slightest legal or active responsibility, but all the red blood of New Mexico could not wash out the act when committed by an Indian.

The Indians made every possible effort to appease the wrath of the slave-holding bashaw who was whisking his long tail among their mountains, and at last they brought in a dead man as the slayer of the missing negro. But as the defunct had evidently died a natural death, justice could not be thus pacified, but demanded a live victim. As it could not be obtained, a general foray upon the flocks, herds and granaries of the Indians was organized, and at the last accounts, fifteen or twenty Indians had been killed, and five thousand sheep had been captured and destroyed.

There is but one judgment to pass upon acts like these. They proceed from a spirit of senseless barbarity. These Indians are cultivators of the soil. They are the owners of immense herds of cattle, horses and sheep. Wherever our devastating troops set their feet the earth is blasted, for it seems that they not only slay man and brute, but they burn the harvests whether in the field or in the garner, and the habitations of the natives. From the very nature of things nothing can follow this atrocious cruelty on one side but a war of savage cruelty on the other.

It is quite useless to plead in extenuation of these acts of bloody severity that these Indians are treacherous savages who cannot be taught to respect or obey the government except through fear. These Indians are cultivators of the soil. They have stationary settlements, and it seems, add very essentially to the general wealth of the country by their pursuits. That such a race should be exterminated to gratify the brutal spite of Col. Brooks, because he has lost a slave, whether at the hands of the Indians or by the legs with which this kind of property is unfortunately endowed, is a digrace to the country. Beside these outrages are not perpetrated at the expense of the slave-holding officers of the army, but at that of the national treasury. It is the people of Illinois who are taxed to pay for them, and it is for them to say whether they will permit them to continue.

Judge Douglas' serenade speech in St. Louis is the opening of his preliminary campaign in the South. In Missouri he goes for Cuba and Mexico. When he reaches Mississippi he will insist upon the reopening of the African slave trade "under the Constitution." That is the South Carolina platform, and indeed it is substantially approved by the Supreme Court in its Dred Scottism.

Horrible Outrage at Fulton City.

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

Fulton City, Dec. 3.

Messrs. Editors:—This entire community has been thrown into a state of the utmost excitement and horror by a recent occurrence here, in which the wife of one of our citizens was subjected to an outrage in fiendishness and barbarity rarely if ever equalled in the annals of crime.

On the night of Tuesday, Nov. 23d, the wife of a man named Forest, a respectable mechanic, a carpenter by trade, but recently employed in boat-building, was fearfully maltreated by two men unknown, who have not as yet been arrested. The family reside on the outskirts of our town, and in a locality but sparsely settled. On the night in question, Mrs. Forest had left her home to attend a prayer meeting at the house of a widow lady named Thompson.

Her route for nearness lay lay across a vacant space, thinly and in patches covered with low bushes. She had attended the meeting and left about 8 o'clock for home. As she passed the vacant tract, she heard behind her at her right a slight rustling noise in the bushes, and turned to the direction of the sound, believing it to be caused by a small dog belonging to Mrs. Thompson, which had often followed her home.

As she turned to the sound, she was startled to find herself confronted by a man who had stolen almost noiselessly to her back, and her first exclamation of terror and alarm was met by the application to her face of a cloth thickly coated with mud, which was instantly bound upon her face, and she rendered blind and speechless. She was then seized by the man and a comrade who joined him, and by the two, borne to a little distance, where a few trees and bushes gave concealment to a deed whose enormities I shrink from chronicling.

The unfortunate, helpless woman, almost within call of her own home, was ravished in turn by her inhuman captors. The worst, where worst seems scarcely possible, remains to be told. Mrs. Forest was near confinement, which the outrage hastened, and, in the presence of the ruffians, she gave birth to a living child. It cried violently. The poor gagged and bound mother heard one of the wretches say to his fellows, "Let us kill the d—d brat;" and, accordingly, one held it while the other actually severed the head from the body. This sight was before the appalled eyes of the poor victim, whose struggles had freed the upper portion of her face from the covering. She saw her infant cut to pieces, and then she was left alone.

She says she fainted, but recovered her senses, how long after she knows not, and regaining her feet, commenced painfully dragging herself homeward, during which fainted three times. It was three hours, or nearly eleven o'clock, when she regained her home, the walk being less than ten minutes distance between Mrs. Thompson's and her own house.

The appearance of the poor woman as she returned to her own house was painful and shocking, and her condition was critical. The neighborhood was at once aroused, the intelligence flying like wildfire.

Since that time and at the present the utmost exertions are being made and have been made to arrest the perpetrators of the crime, a double one, of rape and murder. Your correspondent though he feels confident that he resides in an ordinarily quiet and law abiding community, would not like to answer for the safety of these villians, even to await a due course of law. No jail in this vicinity could have held them, within three or four days after the perpetration of the crime.

Mrs. Forest's condition remains serious, though not critical. She avers that she recognized one of the men as one she had seen before. Of both she gives descriptions which are now in the hands of the leading detectives of your city, one of whom I saw here this morning. It is to be hoped that the wretches will yet be brought to the justice they so fully merit.

THE CITY.

Rain.—On Saturday evening it rained heavily.

Late Papers.—Norris & Hyde, No. 100 Dearborn street, have all late magazines and papers.

Snow.—On Friday night and Saturday morning it snowed.

Books Received.—The New Priest of Conception Bay, from S. C. Griggs & Co.

Mud—The mud continued throughout Saturday unabated.

Illustrated London Almanac for 1859.—An exquisite number. It may be had at Norris & Hyde's, No. 100 Dearborn street.

The Weather.—We have, we think, two or three separate items on weather matters. A single one could not do justice to the subject.

Harbor Matters.—Though vessels both sail and arrive continue to arrive, the season of navigation lies at the mercy of one cold night. The large majority of the craft now in our river are in winter quarters.

Important to Housekeepers.—If you wish to enjoy buckwheat cakes without scenting your house with smoke, go to Hamilton, Fuller & Co.'s, 194 Lake street, and get a nice soap stone Griddle.

Carriers Address.—The Carriers of the Press and Tribune will give twenty dollars for the best written New Year's Address, the same to be sent in by the 24th inst. Rejected Addresses returned at the option of this office.

The Sugar Refinery.—We notice that the noble, five-story edifice on the north side of the river, below Rush street bridge, for the Chicago Sugar Refinery of Belcher & Co., is now near completion. It is said it will be in operation about the middle of January.

Arrested at St. Louis.—Officer Tunnicliffe, of St. Louis, arrested a Chicago man named Henry Deveraux, in that city, on Thursday evening, for the larceny of a costly gold watch, in this city. He is a brother of Robert Deveraux, lately arrested for the recent and extensive bank robbery at Buffalo. It seems to run in the family.

Chicago Citizens Lost at Sea.—In the list of passengers on the missing steamer Indian Empire, three at least are from Chicago, and have friends and relatives here, deeply interested. Their names are P. Reardon, F. McGowen and Michael Clifford, three youths on their way to pursue their studies at the American College in Rome.

Narrow Guage.—The four foot tow path, on the south side of Lake street, between Clark and Dearborn has been completed. We hope it will stand alone in its class of achievements. We have a sufficient variety of sidewalks without any such addition. The ordinance calls for eight feet width at least, and the City Superintendent should enforce the same.

Important Meeting.—All citizens interested in procuring the Illinois State Fair in this city next autumn, are requested to meet at the Tremont House, Monday next, at 7½ o'clock. We hope all who feel an interest will be present.

Matthew Laflin,
Thomas Dyer,
Dr. W. B. Egan.

Game.—Our market column will have informed our readers that game is plenty—never before more so for years past. Venison by the hundreds of carcasses is being poured in upon us, chiefly from Wisconsin, and owing to the mildness of the season, and the risk of shipments east, game and poultry of all kinds sell unusually low. Venison steaks at 8@10c cannot be considered dear. Turkeys rule from 5 to 6c per lb. For the rest see market column.

Chicago and the Doctors.—The roll of the medical profession of all schools in our city, shows that forty physicians, resident here a year since, have gone to other fields. The accessions to the profession from abroad have been less than usual, and the result shows a falling off in the ranks. The hue and cry that Chicago was an unhealthy city turned out an expensive sell to practitioners who gave up good fields elsewhere to come here.

Lecture on Italy.—In compliance with the request of many of our most respectable citizens, the Rev. Mr. Marks will deliver a lecture on this (Monday) evening, at Metropolitan Hall, on "Rome in Holy Week," in which the lecturer will describe the scenes and ceremonies in St. Peter's and other Churches, the Sale of Indulgences, and Prodigal Exhibition at this time. The scenes in St. Peter's are illustrated by some paintings brought from Rome.

The Philadelphians on Horse Railroads.—A Philadelphia exchange on the subject of Horse Railroads, after a trial in that city comes out thus strongly: "Last winter and spring we ran wild on the subject of Passenger Railways, of which we now have some sixty miles, either built or threatened. Greatly as they promote our comfort, the people obtained them only after a fierce struggle with the opposition. But now there is a general astonishment, even among the opposition, that any one should have objected to them."

Larcenies on Saturday.—A man, named William Desch, was held to bail in the sum of $200, to answer the charge of stealing a sheep from a butcher's stall. Edward Barret, a boy, was sent to the Reform School, for stealing old junk.—Jas. Casey, a pawn broker, was held for further examination in the sum of $500 for receiving stolen property.—Wm. Kelly, was committed in default of $200 bail, for larceny of a ring from the jewelry store of Charles Verges, No. 541 North Clark street.—Three men, named Charles Green, Thomas Fitzgerald and Michael Kennedy, were arrested yesterday, for larceny of a can of oysters from Wm. Hunt, on State street.

Don't Stutter—Write Legibly.—That person who should attempt to communicate important information in a stuttering, inaudible whisper, would appear no less ridiculous and unfortunate, and be quite as successful in reaching our understanding as do thousands of persons learned and unlearned, who attempt to talk on paper. We say to every body write legibly. If you cannot do it without, go to Bryant & Stratton's College and receive instruction from Spencer, who will put an end to your stuttering on paper, and make you distinct, easy and elegant in the use of that secondary power of speech—the art of writing.

Centennial Burns Celebration.—A meeting of the St. Andrew's Society was held in the Tremont House on Saturday evening for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of celebrating the Centennial Birth-Day of Robert Burns. Andrew Harvie, Esq., President, in the Chair, John Stewart, Secretary. After hearing suggestions from the members present, the following persons were appointed a Committee to confer with members of other societies, and with citizens generally, on the subject, with power to add to their number—said Committee to report at a subsequent meeting:—Wm. James, Jr., B. F. Strother, Sylvester Lind, And. A. Wyllie, John Alston, John McGlashin, A. C. Ducat, John McArthur, and all the officers of the Andrew Society and the President of the Society, and Chairman of Committee.

☞ Messrs. Gilbert, Hill & Sampson will sell to-day an extensive assortment of parlor, dining room and chamber furniture, silver-plated ware, and ivory-handled table furniture.

Messrs. Eds. Press and Tribune.—Gentlemen: I wish through your columns to render an act of justice to Mr. Moore's Merchant Police, by thanking them for their promptness in taking care of a valuable case of goods inadvertently left exposed at my store on Friday night, on their part a gratuitous act, as I was not one of Mr. Moore's patrons at that time, and I prize the services they rendered the more on account of the other police neglecting to notice and take care of it, though having, as I am informed, passed it several times in their regular patrols. Such acts of vigilance are in my view a strong recommendation to Mr. Moore, and should gain him a liberal patronage.

Yours respectfully, E. R. Bowen.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

From Washington.

New York, Dec. 4.—Letters from the Navy Department from the commander of the frigate Wabash at Beyront, state that no efforts have been made by the authorities there to bring to trial the authors of the outrage on the American family at Jaffa. The commander had informed the Pasha that he should insist upon their immediate trial, notwithstanding the wish had been expressed to postpone until all the miscreants had been captured. The Pasha evinced a disposition to do justice.

Chief Justice Eckles, of Utah, is in Washington for the purpose of conferring with the Administration relative to the affairs of that Territory. It is understood that he will earnestly protest against the proposed opening of the public lands there for sale, excepting under such restrictions as shall prevent their monopoly by the Mormon Church.

The U. S. Treasury statement for the week, ending Monday last, shows the receipts $507,000; drafts paid $852,000; and drafts issued nearly the same amount; leaving a balance in the Treasury of nearly $6,000,000—a reduction of $266,000 from last year.

New York City Democracy in a Row.

New York, Dec. 4.—There was a large and turbulent meeting at Hildebrand Hall last night, called to ratify the anti-Tammany nomination for Comptroller, Governor of the Alms House, &c., at which Fernando Wood and Mike Walsh were the prominent speakers. Dr. Chadsey was appointed chairman, but the organization proceeded no further.

A party of Purser men (Tammany) under the command of Pat Mathews, took possession of the platform, ejected Mr. J. K. McMahon from the table on which he endeavored to speak, sent the table after him, and Dr. Chadsey and his friends after both.

They then organized the meeting by appointing a Mr. Quinn as Chairman, and Andy Sheahan, Secretary, pronouncing it a Purser and Lynch meeting, and adjourned.

The Virginia State Convention.

Petersburg, Va., Dec. 3.—Speeches are the order of the Convention, so far. O. Jennings Wise is now speaking (evening session) in favor of Letcher for Governor. As soon as he concludes, the balloting will commence.

LATER.

December 4.—The Convention got through with the first ballot at 4 o'clock in the morning. The interest manifested was intense, the crowd remaining till the close. The candidates presented were Messrs. Letcher, Hopkins, Edmunson, Smith of Greenbriar, Brockenbough and John Randolph Tucker.

Mr. Letcher was nominated by about 125 votes over all others.

South Carolina Legislature.

Columbus, S. C., Dec. 4.—Mr. W. D. Porter, of Charleston, was to-day elected President of the Senate in place of Mr. Chestnut, resigned.

Resolutions were yesterday introduced in the House, instructing the Representatives of South Carolina in Congress to use all efforts to secure the repeal of all measures of the General Government restrictive of the slave trade, the same being in derogation of the rights of the South. They were ordered for consideration to-day.

Senator Douglas at New Orleans.

New Orleans, Dec. 3.—Senator Douglas arrived here at eight o'clock this evening. One hundred guns were fired, and the hospitalities of the city tendered him. He was then escorted by the Mayor and Aldermen to the St. Charles, where he was called out and made a brief speech.

The True Delta nominates Senator Douglas for the Presidency.

Sailing of Steamers.

New York, Dec. 4.—The steamer City of Baltimore sailed from here at noon to-day with 64 cabin and 256 steerage passengers for Liverpool. She takes out $115,000 in specie.

The steamship Prince Albert sailed to-day for St. Johns, N. F., and Galway with 137 passengers.

HOP YEAST.
ATTENTION HOUSEKEEPERS.—Knowing the difficulty of getting Good Yeast in this city and county, the undersigned has commenced the manufacture of Hop Yeast in Chicago. It is put up in the form of a dry cake and is known as the "New England Dry Hop Yeast Cake." They may be had of any respectable Grocer in this city, and towns in this and adjoining states. By using these cakes and keeping them on hand, you can in two minutes time have a cup of fresh yeast and at an expense of one penny.
Directions for Using.—Break a cake into a cup of blood warm water—it will dissolve in two minutes—then make your sponge and set it to rise over night. Knead your dough well and keep it warm until ready for the oven, and you will have better bread than with any other yeast. One cake is sufficient for three quarts of flour. Retail price, 1 shilling for a package of 12 cakes, or $1.50 for a gross box.
Inquire of your grocer for the New England Dry Hop Yeast Cake, and take nothing else if you would have good raised bread. If he has not got it ask him to get it for you. Manufactory on Cottage Grove Avenue, near the Car Works, Chicago, Ill. P. O. address Box 3124. Grocers orders promptly filled whether in city or county.

WATER WHEELS.
VANDEWATER'S
Recently Improved Jonval Turbine
WATER WHEEL.
Office, No. 81 South Clark Street,
CHICAGO.
I OFFER THIS IMPROVED TURBINE Water Wheel to the public with the fullest confidence and assurance of its SUPERIORITY OVER ALL OTHER WHEELS,
Without any exception. They are well adapted to (and have been tested in) Mills of all descriptions. They give a very
STEADY AND UNIFORM SPEED,
And are well adapted to very high as well as very low heads and falls. They will work well in back water without any material loss of power, and are not troubled with ice, as they are set inside of the forebay and discharged underneath. It requires a small amount of gearing to get up a high speed, costs but little to set up, and runs upon a step that needs no oiling, and will last for years. This Wheel is capable of yielding a power of from 70 to 85 per cent. of the whole power of the water (according to the degree of finish of wheel) under high heads and falls, and in all cases it is warranted to work up to the power laid down in the table and to give satisfaction when properly put up and geared.
State, County and Town territories for sale.

F. A. THOMAS & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
DAVIS' PATENT ALSPHALTIC ROOFING.
(PATENTED AUGUST 24, 1858.)
PREMIUMS AWARDED AT THE LATE Mechanical Fair held in this city.
The foundation of this roofing consists of Canvass saturated with Asphaltum, underlaid with Felt paper, or of Felt alone. The covering compound is composed of Asphaltum, India Rubber and Gum Shellac. A new method having been discovered for dissolving Rubber and Shellac, allowing any quantity desired to be used, and combining them with Asphaltum, without the use of expensive and injurious solvents used in all the Coal Tar Cements, which always evaporate and leave the Composition porous and brittle. In this Compound all the volatile matter is removed, entirely freeing it from such defects, and is known to be the most durable material for roofing in the world.
All orders promptly attended to. Orders from the country supplied with the prepared Canvass Paper and Composition, with instructions.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF REAL ESTATE
AT AUCTION.
The undersigned, Proprietors of
EAST SPRINGFIELD,
Will sell on
WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 8TH NEXT,
A large portion of East Springfield, which is laid out on a beautiful tract of land, containing over 400 acres, East of and adjoining the
CITY OF SPRINGFIELD,
In the County of Sangamon and State of Illinois.
Possessing all the advantages of a Capital City, portions of it lying and being much nearer the State House than lots within the city of Springfield, and not subject to city taxes.
The present prospective growth of the Capital of the State of Illinois renders this a more desirable opportunity for capitalists to make investments in Real Estate than has been offered in this State for a long time.
Not only capitalists, but those who desire eligible sites for residences, where they can have from four to sixteen acres of land, or those who may wish from one to ten lots of 40x150 together, can be accommodated.
The Proprietors propose to place Cash Purchasers and those who buy on time on a perfect equality, to-wit:

PRESS AND TRIBUNE.

MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 6, 1858.

South Carolina Politics—The New Senator.

South Carolina is a kingdom unto herself. She has her own peculiar customs and methods, all grounded on peculiar notions of her intrinsic importance, and her indispensibility to the existence of Democracy, Christianity, nigger-making and nigger-driving not only in this country, but in all the world besides. She is as little affected by the national divisions of parties and political questions of national importance, in which there is no "cullered pusson" hid away, as Nova Scotia or Newfoundland. She knows no such plebian designations as "Democrat," "Republican," "American," or "Abolitionist." The names by which her parties are dubbed have chivalric terminations, and are taken upon the tongue with respect. She looks down with aristocratic scorn upon the petty squabbles of men elsewhere. Her first families are sufficient for the control of her affairs and for the fixing of her relations to all outside barbarism beyond her borders. But lately South Carolina has been convulsed. Her first families have for once failed to agree. The memory of that madman, Calhoun, whose vagaries still give law to her people, has proved insufficient to insure the continuance of the harmony that has heretofore prevailed. Common sense is again asserting dominion over the minds of a share of her people; hence the contest which we record. It was over the election of a United States Senator; and the division was between the Extremists and Conservatives—the former of whom are clamorous for the reopening of the Slave Trade, for the conquest of Cuba, the subjugation of Mexico, the dissolution of the Union, the organization of a Southern Slave Republic, and the immolation of the whole world of Abolitionists. The latter, emancipated in part from the Calhoun delusion, seem to have a keen sense of the ridiculousness of any further Quattlebumisms, and are anxious that the State should try and behave herself as well as she can, that she should become once more an integral part of the American Union, send delegates to the next Democratic National Convention, leave off her damnable faces and begin—to repent for the absurd follies of which she has been guilty heretofore. Each party had its candidates in the field. The extremists named R. Barnwell Rhett, ex-Gov. J. H. Adams and John McQueen—all men so hot with zeal that water would boil in their presence without fire, and so full of treason that hemp winds itself into a coil without hands whenever they came near. The Conservatives put forward Ex-Gov. John L. Manning, Christopher G. Memminger and Mr. Speaker Orr, holding the President of their Senate, James Chestnut, Jr., in reserve for a coup de main, when the ime for it should come. With such men pited against each other in a place so fiery as outh Carolina, the reader may imagine that he contest was bitter and prolonged. What ireful threats were made against the Union, hat terrific onslaughts upon all who oppose he opening of the Slave Trade, what glowg pictures were painted of the possible eatitudes of a Slave Republic, comprising uba, St. Domingo and Nicaragua, during e progress of the fight, our readers may ever know. Perhaps it is well for their eace of mind and their rest o' nights that ey should not. Let it suffice that the reats, onslaughts, and the glowing pictures ssed for nought. When the fight had proessed many days, and when the extremists ought that they had victory in their grasp, e conservatives dropped all the candidates whom they had voted joined teams with Mr estnut and with the aid of his personal ends carried off the prize! We breathe er and deeper. The Union is saved again. th Carolina has humanely, nay, even genusly, resolved not to abandon it to its e. Mr. Chestnut, though possessed with ultra Southern ideas, is not quite stark d. His election under such circumstances, he proof of the existence of an Union paren in the Palmetto State—a fact which and by it may be refreshing to remember.

New Gold Diggings—Later from Pike's Peak.

he St. Joseph and Council Bluffs papers ne to us with astounding display heads, der which are written out exciting acnts of the success of the gold hunters in new gold region about Pike's Peak. A Richtmann had returned to the Bluffs, hteen days from the diggings, bringing h him a visible quantity of the precious tal and bundles of letters from the miners, of whom were exultant in their prospects rich success. We might epitomise all these papers published; but the accounts ll are substantially the same: that there old; that with the rudest implements intrious men are gathering $5 to $8 per ; that no mining can be done in the win; that the country is healthy; that all e magnificent expectations of treasures to bund in the spring. It is probable that he opening of navigation the mines will large accessions of people from our tern frontiers.

Which and T'other.

e New York Tribune is very sure that New York Times has deserted Republican ciples; and reads its cotemporary a lly of a column's length, in which the ce is amply proved and duly reprobrated. away the dispute will be of little conseice, except as it will serve to demonstrate truth of the old adage—"Old wantons Wanton!' first." Since the Tribune led in the election of Douglas, standing e Cincinnati Platform, the Kansas-Nea bill and the Dred Scott Decision, over ois, a Republican of unimpeachable ty to the cause, its censures of all who t toe the mark on matters of doctrine, e most refreshing jokes of the season. Times will improve the hint in its retort. husband! Go it, bear!

A New Definition.

latest term for human slavery comes Mississippi, in the legislature of which there is a bill pending for the reduction free negroes within the State's juris, to the condition of chattles personal. process is described by its author as subordination"—a gentle name onstrous thing. The ingenuity of Mr. Crane,—a rare bird he must be!—to new definition is attributed, will be rewarded; because there are men who would defend "economic lisation" of men or color, who would y if accused of attempting to put the of slavery upon the individuals, Jack and Pompey. Railway Matters.

THE MINNESOTA RAILWAY BONDS.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer who, that paper states, speaks by authority, attempts, with much force, to explain the whole matter of the issue of the Minnesota bonds for railway purposes. After referring appropriately to the character of the people of Minnesota as an important element in the value of the bonds, he adds:

The State has large securities which cannot fail to give additional value to the second issue of her bonds. Each railroad company, before receiving any bonds, conveys to the State two hundred and forty sections of land, which, at the moderate value of three dollars per acre, (much less than their present value) amounts to $400,800. This is at least something towards the $1,250,000, to which each company is entitled. But these bonds are to run twenty-five years. Before half that time shall have expired these lands would average from ten to twelve dollars per acre, making a sum large enough to pay the whole loan, and leaving two or three hundred thousand dollars for interest. In addition to this each company executes an instrument securing to the State the net earnings of its road, to pay the interest on the State bonds.

The State also receives from each company an "amount of first mortgage bonds corresponding to the State bonds issued." These bonds are secured by a mortgage on all the lands, road and franchises of the company, and any bondholder can foreclose this mortgage in case of default.

In addition to this, each company endorses the State bonds received by them, adding whatever of value there may be in that endorsement. This is the position of things, if we take the worst possible view of Judge Emmett's decision. But if we take into account the fact that some of the companies have fully and in all respects complied with the ruling of the Governor, giving priority of lien to the States for the bonds which it receives from it, this makes the case still stronger, and shows more clearly the superior value of these State bonds.

In connection with this, it is proper to take into consideration the good faith and energy with which the work has been prosecuted upon all these lines of road. They were required by law to perform their work before they could receive their bonds, but they have performed their work much faster than was expected of them, while they have not called for bonds nearly as fast as they were entitled to them.

Each of the four Land Grant Companies has graded nearly fifty miles of its line. This work has been done by honest and enterprising contractors and industrious laborers. The companies pay chiefly for this labor in State Bonds. But the contractors and the laborers need money. Every blow struck at the State Bonds falls heaviest upon them. They do not ask favors, but they do expect simple justice, and an impartial statement of facts. This at least is their due, and this I am sure that you at least will most cheerfully accord to them.

Very respectfully yours,
VINDEX.

New York, Nov. 30.

We have received, says the Courier and Enquirer, from an official source, the following statements, which go to prove the correctness of the above.

1. It was at the instance of the Governor that the opinion of the Supreme Court was had, and an application for a mandamus was the only form in which the question could be raised.
2. Three of the companies united in bringing the question to a decision, although the application was in the name of one only.
3. There is not nor has there been any hostility between Governor Sibley and the Companies, or any of them, but on the contrary, the Minnesota and Pacific R. R. Company, in whose name the application was made, cheerfully amended their Trust Deed in all respects, in conformity to the suggestions of the Governor.

[From the Iowa State Democrat.]

THE RAILROAD INJUNCTION.—DECISION REGARDING THE M. & M. R. R.—In another part of our issue of this morning, we publish the decree of Judge Woodward, entered upon the late motion to dissolve the injunction applied for by Judge Grant against the issue of the county, under the late vote.

It will be observed that while the greater portion of the injunction is sustained on account of the fact that no notices were posted as required by law, that part of it which prohibited the Judge of Scott County from submitting any proposition for the benefit of the Mississippi and Missouri Railroad, is dissolved. Of the unheard of, unprecedented, and utterly absurd usurpation of authority, even Judge Woodward of Muscatine, is thoroughly ashamed, and so intimates in the very clumsy apology, with which he couples his crawfishing. As he very truthfully remarks, "it is not the province of a Judge to anticipate what may be done, and to prohibit in advance. It will be sufficient when it is seen what is submitted to votes or what is voted."

The result has been as we predicted at the time of the injunction. The act, by one Judge of enjoining another from exercising his discretion, in matters which were left by the law solely to be determined by that discretion, was illegal and void; but we suppose that the opponents of the loan will be partially satisfied with the result since, the proclamation with no provision for the M. & M. R. R. is already out.

RAILWAY FROM LACROSS TO ST. PAEL.—A correspondent of the LaCrosse Republican briefly argues the propriety of a railway thence to St. Paul, as follows:

DISTANCE.

1st. The distance on the line of the River, would not be exceeding 130 miles.

GRADE.

Next, the grade would in no one place, exceed ten feet to the mile, and not over two miles of that grade, made up of detached pieces—much of the grade only that of the river fall, very small portions four or six feet, with no deep cuts or heavy embankments.

COST.

The road built and equipped will not exceed $17,000 per mile.

FACILITIES FOR BUILDING.

All the material, wood, stone and gravel, immediately upon the line, being a saving of cartage.

FREE FROM IMPEDIMENTS.

Always free from drifting snows, the source of so much loss in running trains in the high open country in the Northwest, three or four months of the year. The Bluffs shelter the valley from this obstacle.

IT WILL PAY.

The road following the great channel of trade established on either side of the river by steamboat commerce, is a guarantee that it will excel in amount of business, any road yet projected in the Northwest, over thirty towns and cities having grown into such business note, as to be the regular steamboat landings, as outlets of the back country, where millions of dollars worth of merchandise are annually deposited. Add to this, says he, the fact that as all the pine lumber on the great tributaries of the Mississippi flow west to that river for an outlet, and market, so must the business connected therewith flow in the same direction.

Now, Mr. Editor, how would this affect other roads? The La Crosse and Milwaukee for instance. Would it not bring a large amount of business upon that road, to pass over its entire length, and give that road the complete control of the Upper Mississippi.

Will it not be the very means of building twenty or thirty cities in this valley, and mark it as the most beautiful, as well as grandest thoroughfare in America.

PRINCETON DEPOT.—We are indebted to C. Barrie, Esq., the accommodating agent at this station, for the following abstract of the business of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, at this point, for the year 1857. It will be seen that over three hundred and fifty thousand bushels of grain were shipped for that year. The quantity this year will, probably, not be so large:

ABSTRACT OF BUSINESS FOR 1857.

Wheat shipped, bu.	182,400
Corn "	161,246
Oats "	6,150
Barley "	350
Total	350,146
Lumber received, ft	3,979,000
Whole amount forwarded for year	$36,937.80

The Young English Tourists.

The Montreal papers profess to have intelligence that Lords Grosvenor, Cavendish and their two companions have been killed by Indians in Minnesota. The story is that when these gentlemen started from St. Paul for Red River of the North, they attached themselves to a company of Sioux Indians who were going the same way—that after a few days travel they met a war party of Chippewas—the traditional foe of the Sioux—an engagement ensued in which the whole party of Sioux and their English companions were put to death.

Per contra: The St. Paul Pioneer learns that the young Lords are alive and well, but that they are detained by stress of weather at the Red River Settlements. They are represented as anxious to get through with the adventure into which the ardor of their inexperienced youth led them when too late in the season to accomplish the trip, but they will have to wait until the snow falls to sufficient depth to make traveling practicable, when they will come down to St. Paul on dog trains.

We sincerely trust the St. Paul version of the matter may prove to be correct.

—A bull-dog attacked General Tom Thumb's ponies lately, as he was riding to the Teutonic Hall at Liverpool. The ponies ran with great speed, and it was with difficulty that the General was rescued. His valet was knocked down and injured, one of the ponies was seriously wounded and the carriage broken.

Instincts of Douglas Democrats—Is this the Nineteenth Century?

[Correspondence of the Press and Tribune.]

Some evenings ago, on an upward passage over the Illinois Central Railroad from Cairo to Sandoval, my attention was called to the manifested uneasiness and anxiety of a woman, whom, I judged from her appearance under the lights of the cars, to be about one-fourth negro.

A man was sitting in the next seat to her, and was noticed to speak to her occasionally, apparently to calm her, almost at times, uncontrolled anxiety. Upon inquiry I learned that "the woman was originally from Virginia, where she was born the slave of the man sitting next to her in the car. That when she had arrived at the age of womanhood, she became the mother of a child by him; and that his attachment to her was so strong that he had taken her and her (his) child to Cincinnati and emancipated them both. Having an older brother living in Texas, the man had determined to pay him a visit, and most wickedly took the poor seduced mulatto woman along as a kind of travelling mistress. They passed unmolested to New Orleans; thence across the Gulf to Galveston, without molestation. Returning, they met with no obstacles until they reached Cairo, to take passage for Cincinnati via. Ill. C. & C. & M. Railroad. While in Cairo, the man was approached and questioned and the woman insulted by a couple of wretches, one a gambler and the other a rum-hole keeper and gambler, hailing from Sandoval, the very sodom of Marion County.

These devils incited by both lust and lucre, took the train with the man and the woman and announced openly that the woman was a runaway slave, and demanded boldly of her "free papers." The man and woman both stated that she was free; that her papers were in her trunk in the baggage car, but denied the right to be subjected to such an inquisition by such a precious brace of scoundrels as these representatives of Sandoval. The man mildly explained to them that he had set her free, and that she was traveling under his protection home to Cincinnati. This, however, did not satisfy the brutes.

Intent on their hellish scheme to possess the person of the poor mulatto woman, who had the misfortune to be rather handsome than otherwise, they disgusted everybody near them in the car with their infernal clamor. Declaring their right to make every colored person exhibit "free papers" or have them arrested at once; and that when they got to Sandoval they intended to arrest the woman, or make her show her papers. Advice and remonstrance were lost upon the miserable wretches, and one of them had the audacity to openly approach the poor trembling woman and demand of her evidence of her freedom, stating to her that if she did not comply with his request he intended to have her arrested as a runaway. The man ordered the brutal ruffian out of the seat, and under the threat of violence he obeyed.

To avoid annoyance, the man and woman under advice of some one, stopped at Centralia, instead of going to Sandoval to which place they had paid their passage and took the morning train for Cincinnati from St. Louis, connecting by the train from Cairo for Chicago.

The last I saw of the inhuman creatures who had so signalized their brutish nature, they were in close consultation with a constable at Centralia, no doubt trying to engage him to aid in their plan of more than hellish meanness.

I learned afterwards, that they took the train for Sandoval, announcing as they left, that they would have the woman arrested at Odin next morning, when she came up on the train for Chicago.

I may only add, that both of these worthies are roaring Douglas Democrats, and boasted of it on the train.

But what a spectacle, Messrs. Editors! A poor, debased woman, for whom the man who robbed her of her honor and disgraced her forever, was so moved by the few lingering impulses of man as to give her her liberty, is here in the free State of Illinois, hunted down by devils incarnate, and escapes only under the shadows of the night and avoiding travel over a public highway of our State! Trembling and shuddering at each rattling of the wheels of the train that bears her out of a State called free; and where the courts have decided the Rule is "that all persons are to be regarded as free, until proven to be slave!"

I must, however, for the sake of our State, and the claims of the commonest decency, that the villians were foiled in their undertaking.

Should any one doubt this statement, I refer them to Mr. Washburne, the conductor of the train, and other gentlemen whom I can name, who were on the train. Yours truly, Q.

The Jews and the Democracy.

Editors Press and Tribune:

I agree with the remarks made in your article on the Mortara meeting and think with you that if the Israelites wish to do anything for their race, they must abandon the Democratic party, which is beneath the feet of the Catholic power. If the Hebrew Democrat in the United States is not ruled by Pius the IXth, he is certainly ruled at the ballot box by the Pope's minions; and the Democratic party as a party dares not to rebuke the Pope and the Papal Propaganda for any outrage, whether to Mortara or a whole community of Hebrews. What hope has the Jew from supporting the Catholicised Slaveocratic party? They can never sympathise with the wrongs of the Ghetto, or utter a word for their crushed brethren of Catholic Europe, nor will they do any thing for humanity. One follows the other, as night does the day.

I think, however, the resolutions calling on the Executive to interfere in the matter, altogether wrong—to say the least, mistaken. It is a well-settled policy of these United States not to meddle in European affairs. Sympathy is our duty, but active interference in such matters is not compatible with States Rights, and the American interpretation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, which means as well that European nations shall not interfere in American affairs or that Americans will not assume to dictate in European matters. But supposing the government could have interfered in the premises, what right have the Jews of Chicago to ask anything from Buchanan,—or rather to expect it? You may remember that last year about this time, a meeting of the Israelites was held in Kinzie Hall to demand the abrogation of the Swiss treaty, in which some of the Jews present at the Mortara meeting were participators. By this odious treaty the Democracy have allowed the Swiss government to ostracise American Jews through the Swiss local laws. While the Swiss is guarranteed freedom to all our territory—Americans (if Jews) are not allowed to settle in several of the Cantons. Of course, our government has no right to make such a treaty, for by it we Americans are made to deprive our own citizens of their natural rights. We must secure equal privileges for all citizens traveling abroad—whether Jew or Christian. Now this, you perceive, something more tangible than the Mortara affair. This was a matter for our government's action, and properly within its diplomatic duties. Upon this a memorial was gotten up from this and many other Jewish congregations, it was caried on by eminent Hebrews, and "the powers that be" listened to the complaints of his constituents and attention at an early day was promised.

The forcing of slavery into Kansas, the chopping off of heads, (and not the natural rights of American Jews,) have been the points of Buchanan's administration. Not a word has James' platform replied to this memorial, and yet we find exalderman Greenbaum again kneeling to the administration, and asking for interference in a matter which he should have known was impracticable. Perhaps Mr. Greenebaum, a la Douglas, proposes to bother the administration. Now, where is the sense of pleading to Old Buck about the wrongs of Mortara when the Swiss treaty remains unaltered—proscribing Jews by the bungling Catholicised dipolomacy of Pierce?

Several Jewish Republicans took no part in the proceedings of the Mortara meeting from the reasons I have stated. They knew it was not a subject for executive or diplomatic action; they further know that if it were, the Democratic Romanish party would afford them no relief. M.

Sheahan on Douglas.

A Chicago correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial thinks that the report that Sheahan, of the Times, is writing the life of Douglas, is a canard, and gives the following as some of the reasons for so stating:

Whatever Mr. Sheahan's accomplishments as the editor of a political journal—and such is the Times, to the almost entire exclusion of all other matter—may be, he is certainly not, if we are allowed to consider his diurnal productions as criteria of his literary capabilities and inclinations, qualified to appear in the part of a biographer—taking the word in a liberal sense. The task of such is to bring mental or other human eminences into bold relief. The ground, however, upon which the relief ought to rest is history. A biographer, in fact, is but a historian. A historian, however, is expected to be possessed of more ability to generalize—to make abstract deductions from concrete deeds—to compare to the ideal man—to judge by an absolute standard of truth and justice—to emancipate himself from the influence of personal predilections, than can be claimed for Mr. Sheahan. He is decidedly a man-worshipper and partisan of the ultra species. Douglas is to him the very embodiment of political perfection. He looks upon him as a sort of demi-god. He inscribes infallibility to his beau ideal. He considers him as the "hope of the country." He can admire, but not judge him. In 1856, he declared in an editorial, that he would cheerfully spill the last drop of his blood, if he could thereby win Presidential honors to the subject of his devotion. The pen that indulges in such extravagant idolization, is never fit to draw an impartial picture of the idolized character. Furthermore, his production would hardly be exempt from a strong infusion of party spirit. He is accustomed to see everything in a party light, to contemplate persons and creeds from a Democratic point of view, and his biographical sketch could not fail to be severe upon those who figure as heretics in his eyes, and consequently displease and offend a large portion, if not a majority of the reading public.

The Pastoral Aid Society—Another Letter from the Secretary.

Editors Press and Tribune:

In replying to the communication in your Saturday's issue, we are sorry to say that the writer of that communication had not the frankness to give his name to the public. We suppose "Illinois," however, to be the Rev. Dr. Clarkson, Rector of St. James' Church, Chicago, for whom we have great personal regard.

The only point which he touches of our communication of the 2d inst., is that of the "confidence" question, in reference to which we would simply say, that for Rev. Drs. Chase, Dresser, &c., we have the greatest respect, but it is not a question of personalities upon which we have written. Although we have not resided so long in the Diocese as some others, yet we are not so young nor so ignorant as "Illinois" would have you suppose. We were born many years before the Diocese of Illinois was organized by the venerated Bishop Chase, and we have been conversant with its history for many years past. We do not base our arguments, however, upon our personal knowledge merely, but upon the testimony of men who have resided in the Diocese from its first organization. The simple facts are these: We found but very few missionaries at work for our Church in the State, and those very poorly paid, according to "Illinois'" own statement; and, upon inquiring the cause, we were told that it was a want of confidence on the part of many of the laity in the present and past Missionary operations. In this we rely upon the testimony of such men as Matthew Griswold, Esq., of Peoria; P. P. Parish, Esq., of Kewanee; the Hon. Hiram Norton, of Lockport; James L. Reynolds, the Hon. John M. Wilson, G. S. Hubbard and James F. Aldrich, Esqrs, of Chicago, and a score of other prominent laymen who are entitled to some respect, and who are among the pioneers of the Episcopal Church in the West. And here we beg leave to quote from an article of the June number of the Church Record from "Illinois" own pen. The writer says: "You cannot get men to give money for what they have not the fullest confidence in. Five times the means will be forthcoming for any ecclesiastical enterprizes or institutions if you allow everybody the free choice of agencies. We do not take exception to this suggestion, but endorse it to the utmost. * * * Freedom of choice, freedom of action is the only right rule for living working men. Suppose Dr. Shelton's people of Buffalo were compelled to support the Philadelphia Association or not give to Domestic Missions, how many missionaries do you think they would send Westward? No, no; let people give as they please, and where they please, and when they please, and good will come of it, the Gospel will be preached and souls will hear and learn the way of life."

Now it is for the purpose of affording opportunities for carrying out the principles above so fully subscribed to, that the Pastoral Aid Society has been organized; and with all due respect to "Illinois," it is far from being "obnoxious to most Episcopalians." Nor was it organized by "four or five clergymen from Ohio." There were twelve or thirteen clergymen who participated in its organization, either in person or by letter, a fourth part of the whole number of acting clergymen in the Diocese, a majority of which number were present at the organization, of whom Rev. Messrs. Nash, Adams, Brodnax and Cowell have never lived in Ohio.

Again, this Pastoral Aid Society is not a society of clergymen, but of laymen more particularly. It was suggested by laymen, it was organized by laymen, and is officered by laymen, (as we happen to be the only clerical officer in it) and it is sympathized with and co-operated in by laymen in most parts of the State. But what does all this talk about Ohio mean? It means that the Rev. Dr. Clarkson and other high churchmen of Illinois, with their organ, the Church Record, are opposed to the Ohio and Virginia Theological Seminaries and the moderate principles which they teach. As for the Ohio and Virginia theology, which seems to be a by-word and a sneer among high churchmen of Illinois, we must confess we are not in the least ashamed of it, for it is the theology of the New Testament and of the Reformers and Fathers of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and we believe it will stand the test far better than that of Nashotah and of high churchism generally, which is becoming so prevalent in this Great West.

It is not from "a want of modesty" that we have thus appeared before the public but from a sense of duty in defending from an unjust attack on the part of High Churchmen the Pastoral Aid Society, which is participated in both by clergymen and laymen who love the Episcopal Church and the State of Illinois, and who were laboring for the best interests of the same before your correspondent "Illinois" ever entered the diocese.

Those who have formed this Society did not expect but what they would meet with some opposition from High Churchmen, and they have not been disappointed. Still they feel that they have a duty to do, and will do it; and we doubt not but that the results will show the purity of their motives in the good which may be done, and it is our only wish and prayer that the Missionaries now in the field may be better sustained, and that many more may be sent out and established, and the Church extended and planted where it is so much desired, and the Gospel of Jesus Christ more widely preached, and more souls saved.

Very truly, and sincerely yours,
HENRY H. MORRELL.

Pastoral Aid Society.

Editors Press and Tribune:

I have read two or three communications in your paper in reference to this matter; and have gone over the "Churchman" and "Record;" but I do not see that any have yet touched the root of the cause in dispute. My solution of the point involved is this: Let the Bishop, if he does not choose to be superseded in the Diocese by the zeal of Episcopalians acting independently of his direction, come to his Diocese where he belongs, and exercise personal supervision over the affairs of the Church. As long as he chooses to prefer the social attractions of the metropolis, and the otium cum dignitate of the bishopric without its labors and responsibilities, he must expect that things will get awry. Neglected by their Bishop, what more natural than that zealous men should undertake and carry on the work that he should do? The Pastoral Aid Society will continue to do good in its own way, in spite of remonstrance; and I can only regret that it cannot canonically elect a Bishop whose care for the Diocese is of more importance than the doubtful attractions of a corrupt city. NO POPERY.

Pastoral Aid Society.

Editors Press and Tribune:

As a peace-maker, permit me to say a word with reference to the disputants in this controversy. The Low Church (as it is called) got up the P. A. S., (a good institution by the way, and not intended to interfere with any other). And, of consequence, the High Church oppose it. This is very natural; but there is one thing which seems to me quite unnatural, and that is that the clergy who are afraid of the P. A. Society's stepping on the toes of the Bishop's prerogative, have hitherto been his opposers, and were at the bottom of all the controversies with which our excellent prelate has been afflicted.

It strikes me, Sir, that this warm solicitude for our reverend and esteemed functionary, is as unexpected as it is spasmodic. LAYMAN.

A Card from Hon. M. J. Parrott.

The Cincinnati Gazette of the 3d inst., contains the following card from Mr. Parrott contradicting a statement now going the rounds of the papers:

DAYTON, O., Dec. 1, 1858.

EDS. CINCINNATI GAZETTE:—My attention has been called to an extract from the Leavenworth (Kansas) Herald, in your issue of the 30th ult., accusing me of having proposed, at a social party in Platte City, Mo., "No more Slave States," and representing that I was greatly embarrassed to escape the bad feeling which this offensive sentiment provoked. The Leavenworth Herald is a besotted organ of the Administration. I thought it needless to notice this foolish story, where the character of the Herald is known, though the Daily Leavenworth Ledger promptly denied it at the time. I never offered such a sentiment or any sentiment on the occasion referred to. So far, too, from leaving precipitately, the fact is that I spent the day following the alleged outrage, on the public Fair Ground, in free and pleasant intercourse with the people of the vicinity. Do me the favor to insert this.

Yours, respectfully, MARCUS J. PARROTT.

More Gold Discoveries.

Among the recent discoveries of gold in this section of the State, we may mention, first, the fact of gold having been discovered to exist in great quantities on the banks of the Gila River. A specimen of the gold from these diggings was exhibited in town this week, fully confirming the previous rumors.

The diggings are about fifteen miles from Fort Yuma, are known to extend about three miles along the banks, and are about a quarter of a mile from the River, to which the dirt has to be carried to be washed. The gold is coarse gulch gold, some pieces weighing as much as five dollars.

At the head of the San Gabriel River, good diggings have been discovered, which pay well. At Mr. Mellus' store we saw a specimen of the gold, brought by Mr. Marshall. It is coarse gold, and it is said there is plenty of it for the digging.

At San Fernando there are good places for diggings where there is water; and we understand that a party is now out in the mountains prospecting for quartz, with strong confidence in the success of their enterprise.

Mining operations are, we believe, being steadily pursued at Santa Anita; the ditch is being rapidly cut, so that water may be obtained to work the entire ground. The prospects of this company are very flattering. There is a large number of men employed, and the greatest activity and zeal is displayed in conducting the works, evincing the confidence of the shareholders in the success of the enterprise.

We expect shortly to be able to notice still greater activity in prospecting with commensurate success.—Los Angeles Star.

THE COST OF A SLIPPERY TONGUE.—In the Waukesha County (Wis.) Court, Mrs. Mary R. Shepard recovered $3,000 damages of John Poe, for slander, and a Miss Turner, in the Muhlenberg County (Tenn.) Court recovered $4,000 of a Mr. Grubb for a like offence.

New Publications.

BENTON'S ABRIDGEMENT OF THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS. Ninth volume. D. Appleton & Co. New York. Chicago: S. C. Griggs & Co.

The Chicago publishers are now ready to deliver to subscribers and others, the ninth volume of Benton's invaluable Abridgement of the Debates of Congress. The volume before us embraces the last half of the administration of John Quincy Adams, and in some respects is one of the most important periods in our national history. The discussion upon the United States Bank commenced, which in Gen. Jackson's administration became one of absorbing interest, calling out the most brilliant efforts of Webster, Clay, Benton, and the other leading master spirits of American forensic eloquence. The debates on the Panama Mission and the Monroe doctrine of the non-intervention of European powers in the affairs of this continent occupy a large space in the volume before us.

In regard to the entire work, we cordially agree with the Boston Traveler, that Mr. Benton has placed the parliamentary history of the country—which is nearly the same thing as its constitutional history—within the reach of all readers and inquirers. It is within the power of all managers of public collections of books, including libraries in small towns, to obtain this Abridgement, and so place it before myriads of readers, embracing almost all who are ever likely to make use of it. It is a trustworthy book, too; for though the editor was a man of strong feelings and prejudices, he was honest, and incapable of misrepresentation. His name is a sufficient pledge for the accuracy and impartiality of the compilation.

Personal and Political.

We commenced the following little bit of personal history, "with a moral to it," to such of our own citizens as come within our category:

Philadelphia boasts of having the richest man in America as a resident. His name is Joseph Harrison. Only a few years ago he was a poor man—but an ingenious and enterprising mechanic. His millions were made in the construction of railroads in Russia! Now let him found an institution for Philadelphia, like the Peter Cooper Institute, and make himself immortal. And so could a good many other men, of far less means. It is not strange that the rich, who desire the respect and esteem and love of their fellow men and of posterity, do not insure it more frequently, by such noble benefactions? They live, enjoy a portion of their riches, excite the envy of their neighbors, die regretted by few, and are soon forgotten. The few dollars they bestow (which is seldom) on objects of charity on a death-bed, is given as a kind of make-peace with heaven, and because they could not keep it longer. And this is the general estimate put upon their charity. Heaven is not purchased by such deeds, nor even the respect of men. A man who is worthy of Heaven, must show his heavenly mindedness through life, and not merely at death's door.

—A Philadelphia correspondent of the Springfield Republican makes mention as follows of Dr. Barnes:

A few days since I called upon the Rev. Albert Barnes—one of the most remarkable men of the age. Probably, he has done more, within the past twenty years, to modify and change the theology of the Presbyterian Church than any man living. He has grown prematurely gray, with a face and form wasted by incessant mental labor. He reminded me of the lines with which Byron commences "The Prisoner of Chillon."

"My hair is grey, but not with years,
Nor grew it white
In a single night,
As men's have grown from sudden fears."

Probably if Mr. Barnes had not been so good a man, and so great a man, he would have been crushed by those who regarded his doctrines as heresy. The amount of mental labor which this man has devoted to the cause of Christianity, is perfectly enormous. He has literally worn himself out. Christians of all denominations here, speak of him with esteem and affection.

—A meeting of those opposed to the expulsion of the Bible from the common schools was held at Cooper Institute, New York, Monday evening. James W. Gerard, Hiram Ketchum and Erasmus Brooks were the speakers, and a series of resolutions, recognizing the Bible as the foundation of all religion and the standard of all morality, and pledging the voters present to support for school officers at the ensuing election no candidates known or believed to be in favor of the exclusion of the Bible from the public schools, was adopted unanimously.

—A bill has passed the House of Representatives of Georgia by a vote of 56 to 52, prohibiting the intermarriage of first cousins, under a severe penalty, and cutting off the inheritance of issue. The preamble to the bill asserts that many deformations of mind and body are of congenital origin from the practice of near kindred intermarrying with each other.

—Mr. Rarey, the horse-tamer, has returned to London, after a very successful tour in Sweden and Lapland. He instructed a class of 200 at Stockholm. The Crown Prince delivered up to him a peculiarly vicious half-breed Arab mare, which no groom in Sweden dared approach. Mr. Rarey tamed her in one hour and twenty minutes. The Prince presented him with a gold medal.

—Gov. Chase of Ohio, has addressed a letter to the Secretary of the Ballot Society of England, in reply to various questions put to him of the working of the vote by ballot system in that State.

—The residence of Mrs. L. H. Sigourney, the poetess, in Hartford, Ct., was entered on the 21st ult., during the absence of the family, and robbed of several hundred dollars worth of jewelry, keep-sakes, &c.

—Col. Titus, of Kansas notoriety, was at Tubac, Arizona, in October, his hundred followers having dwindled to nine. He had given up the idea of conquering Sonora, and thought he should go back to the States.

—The Independence says that M. de Rothschild has sent, through the representative of his house in the Pontifical States, the sum of 10,000 francs to M. Mortaro, to enable him to continue his efforts for the restitution of his child without sacrificing the interests of his family.

—The Boston Advertiser has seen a letter from Hon. Charles Sumner, to a friend in Milton, Mass., dated at Worms, November 8, 1858, in which Mr. Sumner speaks in encouraging terms of the state of his health, anticipating a speedy recovery. A week previously, he had been in Munich.

Frazer River—Pacific Railroad—Progress of Victoria.

The Victoria correspondent of the N. Y. Herald furnishes the following interesting information from that region:

We are in a high state of excitement at this place, both in consequence of the continued discovery of rich gold placers in our vicinity on Frazer River and the arrival here in our waters of an English fleet with two hundred Royal Engineers, under Capt. Parsons, who are preparing for a survey of a line through British Columbia for a railroad from Frazer River to Halifax. This party is to co-operate across the Rocky Mountains with a party that started from Montreal last spring, and who will winter this year on the south fork of the Saskatchewan. The country is represented as eminently practicable, and the idea of extreme cold and deep snows is laughed at by the Hudson Bay Company, and others who know the character of the country, and who say that they are aware that this frozen idea has already frightened Brother Jonathan off a northern track.

The British ship Ganges, carrying 74 guns, the Satellite, carrying 40, and the Plumper, carrying 50 guns, are now in the harbor, sent out to protect English interests and English laws during the gold excitement on Frazer River. The news from the mines is now encouraging, and four thousand miners have gone to work to build their houses and homes and commence preparing for the winter at Forts Hope, Yale and Langley, and there is every prospect of these mines yielding richly during the winter season. Our interests here and the richness of the mines have been greatly underrated by persons whose interests and prejudice it was to do so; but we have evidence enough before us to convince all that gold to a great extent exists throughout this whole region. The only thing we now need is a large hardy overland emigration, and soon we will build up in the Northwest a second California.

Victoria now contains some seven thousand people, and the large amount of shipping in the harbor, the busy marts of trade, the grading of streets and the rush of business, all bespeak a large and growing city. The British ship Ganges brought out 200 troops, under Col. Hawkins, who are now engaged in building barracks at this place. The Royal Engineers, under Capt. Parsons, who have just arrived from England, will remain here until early spring, when, having completed their outfits and preparations, they will start on their overland trip for a survey of a railroad line to Halifax.

Mrs. Stowe's New Story.

[From the Boston Transcript.]

The reading public will be glad to learn that the story, entitled "The Minister's Wooing," commenced in the Atlantic Monthly for December, is the beginning of a serial novel from the pen of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe; and that portions of it will appear from month to month until it is completed. The story is marked by all the characteristics of style and spirit which have made the author's former works so famous. The scene is laid in New England immediately after the Revolution—the period when all that most simple, quaint and peculiar in character and manner, was in full force. It was the era before railroads, steamships, lightning presses, fashionable churches, and fashionable clergymen—in short, the good old times of which the present generation have so often heard. We look forward to see a masterly portrait of Puritan life sketched in this romance. However, it is not necessary to do more than to announce the fact; an author whose name and works are known in more than thirty languages, and whose two novels have reached a sale of more than eight hundred thousand volumes in this country alone, will not surely want for readers. We shall look for the coming numbers of "The Minister's Wooing" with great interest.

INDIANA MATTERS.

Hard Money Tendencies—Bill for Electing United States Senators.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 1st.

The symptoms already manifested indicate strong hard money predilections on the part of a majority of the Legislature. In both branches, measures not at all friendly to paper money institutions have been introduced in the Senate, prohibiting banks from issuing bills of a less denomination than ten dollars. Referred to the Committee on Banks.

The bill providing for a re-appraisement for the purpose of an equalization of taxes, to which I referred in my morning report, was taken up in the Senate this afternoon, amended and finally ordered to be engrossed. As it reads now, it provides for the appointment of an Assessor, together with not more than three assistants, by the Board of Commissioners—the said officers to hold their offices for a term of five years. From 1863 they are to be elected by the people. A new appraisement is to be made upon the expiration of every five years.

A bill specifying the mode of electing U. S. Senators was introduced in both Houses. Its provisions are as follows:

Sec. 1. Provides that the election may be held at any session of the Legislature when a vacancy occurs, or at the session of the Legislature previous to the occurrence of the vacancy.

Sec. 2. The vote to be had in each House seperately; a majority of each House voting for the party elected.

Sec. 3. The proceedings in each House to be spread upon the journal; a transcript to be made by the clerks, and certified by the presiding officers, to be transmitted to the Secretary of State, who shall forward a copy of the same to the party elected, with the seal of state attached to it. In case of the refusal of any officer to perform such duty, a sworn copy of the journal, accompanied by a resolution of the House, certifying to such neglect or refusal, is made equivalent evidence of the election.

Sec. 4. Provides that the election shall be held in the same manner as elections for officers in either House.

Sec. 5. Declares that the neglect or refusal of any officer, described in Section 3d, is a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from 500 to 1,000 dollars.

Sec. 6. Provides that as the State is represented, there exists an emergency for the taking effect of this act immediately after its passage.

Considerable work was done this afternoon by both Houses, in the way of reading bills a second time and referring to the standing committees.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1, 1858.

The President has finally decided to favor a temporary revival of the Tariff of 1846. Whatever differences of opinion upon this subject existed between the President and Secretary of the Treasury, have been adjusted, and it is now supposed that the Cabinet will remain intact.

Mr. Forsyth will meet the President again tonight by appointment, to confer further on Mexican affairs. Mr. F. recommends an immediate recognition of the Jurez Government, and then an efficient application of physical force. By his means alone, in his opinion, can justice be obtained in Mexico. The Message will be very full on this subject. Mr. Forsyth speaks of returning to Mexico to reside permanently so soon as there is a stable Government.

The statement that Mr. Cobb is about to leave the Cabinet created not a little excitement here among the friends of that gentleman, and we shall probably have a score or two of indignant declaration that such a thing as his retirement has never been thought of for a moment. Nevertheless, the fact is true that this change was contemplated. As I have before written you, Mr. Buchanan has been determined to have the existing tariff revised in some shape or other; and Mr. Cobb has quite as earnestly opposed his views in this regard. I would not be understood to say that this difference of opinion has given rise to any personal controversy between the President and Secretary. Their personal relations have been and are of the most intimate and kind. The difference has been one of opinion, and apparently irreconcilable—upon a grave question of public policy, in relation to which each of them is expected to present his views to Congress at its meeting.

It will be remembered that the Secretary of the Treasury—unlike the other Cabinet officers—makes his report directly to Congress, instead of the President. Mr. Buchanan, it is said, desired to interpolate in the Treasury report his views of the tariff policy which should be adopted. This Mr. Cobb objected to, very naturally, for the reason that he could not make himself responsible for sentiments and opinions that he was not prepared to avow and maintain. He receded so far as to express a willingness to suspend the free list, but could not bring himself to the point of recommending himself to the point of recommending anything like the specific duties, or an increase of the tariff generally. The difference seems to have been arranged in part, by an agreement that Mr. Cobb shall pursue the policy of "masterly inactivity," that is, say nothing on the subject, and that the necessary recommendation of tariff modifications shall be made in the President's Message. This plan may prevent the reorganization of the Cabinet, but there have been various indications tending to confirm the statement that Mr. Cobb was about to retire. The difficulty, however, of finding a suitable Southern man to take his place, who would be willing to sustain the President's policy, certainly would present a serious obstacle in the way of the proposed change. Possibly Mr. Toucey or Mr. Black might be transferred to the Treasury, and the vacancy be filled by the new man.

Have you marked the significant silence in the South with reference to the movements of General Walker? He left Mobile just before the date on which I telegraphed you that he had probably embarked from another Southern port, since when we have heard nothing of him. His friends here rejoice in the belief that "no news is good news." Just before the recent detention of the Alice Painter at Mobile, I was informed that Walker might have been willing to postpone his departure until Sir Wm. Gore Ouseley had concluded his negotiations and got out of the way, if it were not for the fact that between one and two hundred of his men were already on the way to Nicaragua. As I could get nothing more definite upon the subject at the time, I thought little of the statement; but the last mails from the Isthmus bring us advices that a party of Walker men had landed north of San Juan del Sur. There is a very decided suspicion here, also, that the men who went out in the Washington, some twenty days ago, were in reality fillibusters; and that it was because Captain Cavendy, of the Hermann, knew they not intended to be taken from San Juan del Sur that he ordered his vessel to proceed to San Francisco without calling at that port. On the other hand, there are some who believe the five hundred men who went around in the Hermann were fillibusters,—that Captain Cavendy's order to his mate not to stop at San Juan was all a sham, designed to prevent detention by the American armed vessels in the Bay of Panama, and that long before this, they have slipped into Nicaragua and taken possession of the country. I give you these curious suggestions for what they are worth. Certainly Captain Cavendy's abandonment of his vessel at Panama was a rather singular proceeding. I need not remind you that the Jo. White Nicaragua Transit party are now-a-days very clearly in the Walker fillibuster interest.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD.
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,
IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and LIVER MEDICINES now before the public.
LIVER INVIGORATOR.
These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.
Billious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.
One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.
Only one dose taken before retiring, prevents nightmare.
Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures costiveness.
One dose taken after each meal will cure Dyspepsia.
One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.
Only one dose immediately relieves Cholic, while
One dose often repeated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventative of Cholera.
Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.
One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.
One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.
One dose, often repeated, cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.
A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbants.
We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all Fevers of a Billious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.
ALL WHO USE IT ARE GIVING THEIR UNANIMOUS TESTIMONY IN ITS FAVOR.
Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
Dr. SANFORD, Proprietor, No. 345 Broadway, New York. Retailed by all Druggists. Sold, also, by BOLLES, SMITH & CO., 124 Lake-st., and FAHNESTOCK & DAVIS, 113 Randolph street.

Sawyer's Fluid Extract of Bark, a nfallable remedy for the Fever and Ague, and the va ous forms of Billious Diseases, Intermittent, Remitte Chill Fever and Dumb Ague, having their origin in ma ria of very fertile and marshy districts, prepared by S. S. Sawyer, Druggist and Chemist, and sold by Sawy Paine & Co., No. 16 Lake street, Chicago.

This remedy is prepared entirely from vegetable s stances, and contains no mercury, arsenic, or anythi that can prove injurious to the system. Its effects a those of a deobstruent and tonic, well adapted to resto the healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, who functions are so generally impaired in this class of di eases.

Quinine and other tonics serve only in many cases break the chills, but do not remove the diseases of iver and other organs implicated, on which the chi and Fever depend; hence the usefulness of the "Fl Extract of Bark," (particularly in regions where Phys cians cannot be readily consulted), which contains a the qualities suited to the indications of these maladi

Hundreds of testimonials in regard to the efficacy the medicine from persons of respectability, have bee given to the proprietor—but he does not make use o them as he prefers to have the medicine introduce its securely by its merits.

Charles' London Cordial Gin.—The Original an only London Gin imported. This Gin, distilled in Lon don from sound Barley, under the surveillance of th British Excise Laws, is delicately flavored with a tinctur of the Italian Juniper Berry, and some of the most valu ble restoratives of the Vegetable Kingdom, rendering it i the opinion of the most eminent medical men, the pures and safest stimulant or diuretic drink in use.

It is a delicious tonic, of a soft and delicate flavor, diff ring entirely from any other Gin, and deyoid of tha harsh, acrid taste, which renders the article known a Holland Gin or Schnapps so objectionable.

Though not intended as a medicine, it is recommended by physicians generally in cases of Dyspepsia, Gout, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Gravel, Colic, Cholera, Fever and Ague, Strictures, Diseases of the Urinary Organs, the Kidneys and the Bowels, Nervous Debility, &c., whilst the weaker sex will find by its adoption a sure relief from those distressing annoyances which frequently attend their delicate organization.

Dr. Valentine Mott, of New York, the highest medical authority, pronounces Charles' London Cordial Gin "not only superior to any other, but the best article of the kind he has ever seen."

It is peculiarly adapted to settlers in the Southern and Western States, as well as for travellers exposed to changes of water and air.

For sale in quarts at seventy-five cents, and pints thirty-eight cents, by all Druggists, Grocers, Fruiterers, and Country Merchants. Beware of imitations. Buy only CHARLES'. NONE OTHER IS IMPORTED.

May be had in Chicago, Ill., of FENTON, ROBINSON & SMITH, No. 15 South Water street; HAVEN, TYRRELL & CO., No. 97 South Water street.

Sewing Machines.

$30.00
Premiums and Diplomas.
THE FIRST PREMIUM AND DIPLOMA was awarded to the Boudoir Sewing Machine,
(HARRIS' PATENT,)
At the Wisconsin State Fair, Oct. 8th, 1858; Machines from One Hundred to One Hundred and Fifty Dollars in competition. Thus another link has been added to its chain of Premiums. The subscriber begs leave to call the attention of the Ladies of Chicago and vicinity to the merits of this beautiful and unrivalled Machine. A few of its prominent advantages over all others are as follows:
1st. It sews with two threads and ties each stitch.
2d. It makes two different stitches.
3d. It will sew backward as well as forward.
4th. It makes two thousand stitches per minute, and sixty-nine stitches to the inch.
5th. The inconvenience of a belt is obviated by the application of a Rubber Friction Wheel.
6th. The nominal price of $30 includes stand and fixtures.
When this Machine was sold at double the price, it was cordially recommended to the public by
I. M. SINGER & CO.
ELIAS HOWE, Jr.
WHEELER & WILSON.
GROVER & BAKER.
Manufacturing Co.
As the best single thread Machine in the market. The price has been reduced one half and its value enhanced by the addition of the Double Thread. An examination of this Machine and its work is solicited at 81 Clark street.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE!
THE LATEST PATENT OUT.—
NO INFRINGEMENT, BUT AN IMPROVEMENT ON ALL OTHER
SEWING MACHINES.
(Pratt's Patent.) The Ladies Companion Single and Double Thread Sewing Machines are warranted to do the work of any other family machine and equally well. They will stitch, hem and gather—and can be so adjusted that the work can be taken out, or so it cannot. There is no threading of the under needle, it threads itself. They are the simplest and most elegant machine in use. They do not miss stitches, and cannot be got out of order. It is less complicated than any other machine; there are no springs in it, and are so simple a child can sew with them. They sew with great rapidity and little noise. Every machine warranted. Satisfactory references given.
The price comes within the reach of all. The common Treadle machine $25. The Silver Plated, beautifully decorated, $30—all complete.
Agents wanted.
Communications answered, and samples sent on the receipt of a postage stamp. A good agent wanted for St. Louis. Prices same as in Boston.

Winter.

"O, Winter! ruler of th' inverted year,
Thy scatter'd hair with sleet-like ashes fill'd,
Thy breath congeal'd upon thy lips, thy cheeks
Fringed with a beard made white with other snows
Than those of age; thy forehead wrapp'd in clouds,
A leafless branch thy sceptre and thy throne
A sliding car indebted to no wheels,
But urged by storms along its slippery way;
I love thee, all unlovely as thou seem'st
And dreaded as thou art."—[Cowper.

THEODORE PARKER.—The Boston correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post, writes under the date of Nov. 27:

I am sorry to learn that Theodore Parker, who was rallying from his recent sickness, and had already begun to preach and lecture again, has had a relapse, brought on by exposure to cold rain, and is now quite ill again, so as to renew the serious alarm previously entertained by his friends.

IT "TOUCHED US NEARLY" when we witnessed the great grief of Rev. Mr. Pryne, of McGrawville, on the train between Adams and Watertown, last Saturday. Mr. P. was engaged in perusing the Herald, when his news-seeking eye fell upon a paragraph which caused him to start wildly up from his seat, and with streaming eyes and faltering voice, inquire of us when the next train went south. "Nine o'clock this evening," was the reply. "Not till nine o'clock? My God! Not before that? I have just read in this paper that my oldest boy was drowned last Monday—dead a week, and I now first hear of it!" And the father wept aloud in his agony. Mr. P. was to speak at Washington Hall, Watertown, Sunday evening, and of course the audience was disappointed, but not without cause.—Utica Herald.

A LAWYER PREACHING A FUNERAL SERMON.—One of the most prominent members of the bar in Montgomery County, preached a funeral sermon a few miles from Dayton, on Sunday last. The ministers were nearly all engaged, and so there seemed to be a necessity for his services on the sad occasion. After hearing the discourses of Judge Storer, on Sunday last, eloquent, instructive and forcible as they were, it seems to be altogether appropriate that Christian members of the legal profession should use the talents they possess in preaching as well as in practice at the bar.—Dayton Journal, 2d.

THE SHERIFF of Newcastle County, Delaware, or his deputy, will have an extensive job of whipping to perform. At the late Court in that county, no less than seven persons were convicted of criminal offences, and, in addition to the fines and imprisonment imposed, some of them are to be sold, and receive from eight to twenty lashes each. One of the convicted—a woman found guilty of stealing a small sum of money and a few articles of wearing apparel, from a person with whom she tarried all night—is to receive ten lashes, and to be sold, within the State, for a period not exceeding seven years.

THE WEATHER IN FRANCE.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, under date of Nov. 15th, says:

"Columns of the newspapers are assigned to the advices of the weather South and North. On the 13th inst., at Strasburg, the thermometer was more than eight degrees below zero, centigrade; in the extreme South heavy falls of snow delayed the diligences; passengers were constrained to alight and walk considerable distances; intense cold was experienced in Corsica; at St. Petersburg, the Neva was frozen over; most of the streams called tributary, in Northern Germany, were in the same condition. Our temperature has become comparatively mild, but the skies weep, the streets are yellow pounds, and there is scarcely light enough at noon for the pen."

LITERARY CLUBS IN BOSTON.—A Boston letter writer reports that among the pleasant things connected with the establishment of the Atlantic Monthly is the Atlantic Club, composed of the contributors to that magazine, who meet once a month over one of Parker's best dinners, and enjoy themselves in a way becoming modern Athenians. "Some inkling of the wit and wisdom which finds the daylight, around the club's ample mahogany, may be gathered from a mention of the names of Emerson, Lowell and Holmes, as constant attendants upon its meetings." The writer adds: "Another recently established club, which also dines monthly, is the Adirondac, composed of members of that famous party which encamped last summer among the woody mountains of northern New York."

TOBACCO AND RUM IN THE NEXT WORLD—HOW THE SPIRITS GET THEIR LIQUOR.—In a lecture at Dodsworth's Hall, on Sunday evening, Judge Edmonds said of spirits in the next world:

"I once had a spirit come to me who had been addicted to the use of tobacco, and the first want he experienced on entering into a spiritual existence was a desire for that. I had an interview with a spirit who was a drunkard while living here, and he asked me for a drink. I asked, 'What good would ardent spirits do you now?' and he said, 'I can drink it through you.'"—N. Y. Post, 29th.

SOMETHING NEW FOR THE LADIES.—A patent has just been issued at Washington to a gentleman of New York city, who, it seems, has made petticoats his study, for an entire new skirt, of the expansive and collapsive variety, that will infallibly torment all the men and enrapture all the women. It is made of white horse hair in open work, and so pliable are the hairs, through their saturation with some new material, which is also patented, a full skirt of forty hoops, all the essentials of elasticity, fullness and strength, can be carried within a muff, occupy scarcely more space than a port-monnaie, and in an instant be adjusted to the person, expanding a robe to a diameter of six or seven feet, giving the wearer the agreeable and imposing circumference of from nineteen to twenty one feet. Ladies moving in the first circles will wear them, of course.

THE STORY OF "AVIS."—Dr. Holmes told the story of the heroine of his poem in the last Atlantic, at the close of a lecture in Charleston, Mass., recently. It seems that a little colored girl was brought to the State Industrial School for Girls at Lancaster, in such a state of disease as to present a most revolting spectacle to all connected with the establishment. It seemed as if nobody would care to touch her, or could look at her without disgust and dread. Under these circumstances "Avis" volunteered to take charge of her, and did so night and day, "giving body and soul to her," as Dr. Holmes says, until she was restored to life and health.—Boston Adv.

A TIGER CAPTURED IN KENTUCKY.—A letter from Bourbon County, Ky., says:

I have just returned from quite an exciting scene, the quiet of our neighborhood having been disturbed by the discovery of a large and ferocious tiger. He was first seen by a black boy, on the farm of Mr. Wm Turner, Sr. The alarm being given, some fifty or sixty of the neighbors, (white and black) soon assembled, armed and equipped, and gave chase to the rapacious monster. He was pursued near a half mile by the dogs, to the forks of the cane-ridge road. Stopping at this point, he concluded to give battle, and after fighting with desperation for a long time was finally captured.

He lived only a short time after and is now in the possession of William Turner, Jr. As to where he came from, and how he happened to stop here in Old Bourbon is of course mere conjecture; it is quite probable that he made his escape from some menagerie.

SMALL POX PANIC AT BUFFALO—PUBLIC SCHOOL CLOSED.—We are sorry to say that this fearful disease is somewhat prevalent in our city. The only safeguard against its horrors is prompt vaccination. In Public School No. 32, quite an excitement was caused by the appearance of the disease in that neighborhood. A little boy named Lemon took the disease and died in three days, the parents scarcely knowing what was the cause of his sickness before he was dead, so rapid were the advances of the dread malady. A panic seized the school, and it was thought it would have to be closed for the remainder of the term, the number attending having decreased from 195 to 80 in one day. Parents, vaccinate your children at once.—Buffalo Republic, 1st.

MRS. PARTINGTON ON LONGEVITY.—"I've always noticed," said Mrs. Partington, dropping her voice to the key that people adopt when they are disposed to be philosophical or moral, "I've always noticed that every year added to a man's life has a tendency to make him older, just as a man who goes on a journey finds, as he jogs on, that every mile stone brings him nearer to where he is going, and farther from where he started. I haven't got the exorbitance of feeling that I had once, and I don't believe I shall ever have it again, if I live to the age of Mathuselah, which, heaven knows, I don't want to. And, speaking of long life, I haven't any desire to live longer than the breath remains in my body, if it isn't more than eighty years—I wouldn't wish to be a centurion, and the idea of surviving one's factories always gives me a disagreeable censoriousness. But whatever is to be, will be, and there is no knowing how a thing will take place till it turns out."

THE position of the Democracy North and South on the English bill reminds us of the answer given to a lawyer who asked a witness "which way did the stairs run?" The witness replied that "one way they ran up stairs, but the other way they ran down stairs."—Louisville Journal.

A GOOD ESTATE.—The executors of Ebenezer Francis, who lately died in Boston, have filed an inventory of the entire estate of that gentleman; and the sworn appraisement shows the following general result:

Cash on deposit in banks	$2,208,355.98

Stocks of various kinds	789,950.41
Total	$3,483,909.39

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Last evening at six o'clock, as Judge Hart, city solicitor, whose family reside at Loveland, on the Little Miami Railroad, was stepping on the forward platform of the last car, the train being in motion he slipped and fell, thereby stripping the flesh from his left leg and crushing his left foot. The probability is that he died in a few hours after the accident.—Cin. Enq.

INCREASE IN VALUE.—The increasing value of real estate in New-York city is shown in the fact that one hundred and twenty-three lots on Madison and Fifth avenues, which sold in November, 1848, for forty-two thousand dollars, are now set down at what is deemed a reasonable estimate, eight hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars.

THE FOLLOWING ITEMS appear in the the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser's summary of the foreign news:

"The London Daily News, the Examiner, the Saturday Review, Morning Advertiser and Court Journal (?) were prohibited from circulation in Paris on the 15th of November."

AS MR. JOSEPH DECKER was riding a race on Saturday evening, near Vincennes, Ind., a dog ran under his horse and caused it to fall, and in falling, Mr. D. was pitched violently forward, breaking his neck, from which he died almost instantly.

THE Meuse of Liege states that a chemist of that town has invented a paper for making the envelopes of letters, which has the property of re-producing on the paper inclosed the post-mark which is stamped on the outside. HENRY CO. COAL COMPANY.—We learn that this company are now bringing to this city, from their mines in Illinois, over one hundred tons of coal per day, yet with these immense receipts they are unable to keep fully up with orders. Part of this is to fill orders on the railroad beyond. But these heavy sales are a compliment to the excellence of the Henry County Company's coal, and perhaps a slight compliment to the efficiency of Mr. Harrison, the Company's go-ahead agent here.—Davenport Gazette.

A SOUTHERN ILLINOIS FRUIT GROWER.—Our old friend, William Yates, Esq., so long and so favorably known in this vicinity, since he quit merchandising, has directed his attention to fruit growing, and in his new home at Tamaroa, in Perry county, has now one of the most flourishing farms and orchards we know of. The farm comprehends some four hundred acres. The orchard consists of 2,079 pear trees, 1,575 peach trees, 509 apple trees, 50 cherry trees, 50 quince trees, 500 raspberries, 200 currants, and a large amount of strawberries, besides chestnut trees, apricots, and other rare fruits. All these have been transplanted under his own direction, and comprehend the choicest varieties. Many of the trees are now in bearing condition.

We are glad to hear of Mr. Yates' prospects as a fruit grower, and only wish his orchard was a little nearer Springfield, so that we could test its good qualities.—Springfield Journal.

PLEASING INCIDENT.—The Morgan Journal mentions a most gratifying little episode, which came off at the Jacksonville Female Academy a few evenings since. After the retirement of Mr. Bateman from the Principalship of the Institution became known, a delegation of his pupils waited on him for the purpose of asking his acceptance of an elegant and beautifully finished writing desk. The gift was accompanied by a graceful note, signed by every pupil connected with the boarding department of the Institution. Such an instance of affection and regard is alike honorable to teacher and pupils.

MARRIAGE IN DUBUQUE.—Marriage is extremely costly here in Dubuque. A gentleman led a blushing damsel to the altar on last Monday or Tuesday, and paid the benignant Divine who officiated, the probable sum of $10. About 48 hours afterwards an interesting circumstance occurred in the bosom of the happy family, which filled his breast with the most intense delight, but cost him another X for the fee of a —— Physician. Early on the next morning the happy husband was mulcted in another X for sundries in a bill of dry goods, prominent among the articles of which were a wicker cradle, a pap-spoon, and a lace cap about the "size of a four-cent orange."—Express and Herald.

PETITION FOR STAY LAWS.—We published the fact a day or two since that some people in the southern part of Iowa, are calling upon the Governor for an extra session of the Legislature to pass a stay law. It looks a little as if this stay law was to be made a pretext for getting the General Assembly together with the real design to legislate for the railroad speculators.

But whether it be so or not we trust that Gov. Lowe will not lend his sanction to the suicidal policy of those who wish a stay law to be enacted. Nothing could so deeply injure the State unless it be to give the State into the hands of the railroad speculators, and if the Governor will take advice from a Democrat he will refuse every request for an extra session for such a purpose.—Dubuque Herald.

EIGHT CHILDREN AT A BIRTH—EGYPT AGAINST ALL CREATION!—About five months since, the wife of Jacob Abbott, living ten miles west of Golconda, in Pope county, presented her husband with eight pledges of affection at one birth! Four of these children survived until some six weeks since, when two of them sickened and died. The remaining two are still living and thriving finely. The whole eight were very small specimens of humanity, as might have been expected. This statement is liter-ally true; it is vouched for by numbers of respectable witnesses who saw the four living children. Egypt is a very prolific country—a leetle too much so, sometimes.—Cairo Gazette, Dec. 3.

MILK SICK AT VALLEY FORGE.—The milk sickness is raging to a great extent in the vicinity of Valley Forge, on the Illinois Central Railroad. There seems to be a remedy for almost every description of sickness, but "milk sickness" is the master disease in regard to a remedy, I have been told by reliable men that have tried everything that could be thought of, but all to no purpose. When their cattle take this disease, they count them on the dead list at once. Although time is fast rolling around to the twentieth century, the pages of history or the medical libraries cast not a ray of light upon the disease of the dumb brute, viz., milk sickness. O! you doctors and men of medical profession, study hard to establish a remedy that will prove destructive to this disease, and gain the praise of the many old farmers that have labored hour after hour in vain to save their stock, when this disease is abroad in the land.—Cairo Gazette, Dec. 3.

The Stratford Gallery,
OF THE
SHAKSPEARE SISTERHOOD,
COMPRISING
FORTY-FIVE IDEAL PORTRAITS,
DESCRIBED BY MRS. J. W. PALMER.
Illustrated with fine Engravings on Steel, from designs by eminent hands.
One Volume, Imperial Octavo, in Antique Morocco, Gilt
$12.00

The plan of this beautiful work is as original as it is attractive. In no respect it is a mere reproduction of the "Shakspeare Galleries," and "Heroines of Shakspeare," so well known to the trade; but with striking novelty and taste combines the story-telling quality of Charles Lamb with the graceful criticism of Mrs. Jameson. The editress has judiciously kept her title in view; from page to page, as from picture to picture, she conducts the reader-visitor through her Gallery, delightfully describing with story and quotation, and continually surprising with the untechnical opinions of a fresh and shrewd mind. The work is a counterpart, and fitting companion, to the "World-Noted Women" of Mrs. Mary Cowden Clarke, and the "Republican Court" of Mr. Griswold.

Among the illustrations are ideal portraits, faithfully studied, and realizing to the eye the poetic character already presented to the mind, of Juliet, Rosalind, Beatrice, Viola, Desdemona, Perdita, Ophelia, Portia, Miranda, Imogen, Cordelia, Cleopatra, Joan of Arc, Hermione, Hero, Lady Macbeth, and so on. The whole are engraved on steel by Mote, Inglis, Cook, Robinson, Edwards, Armytage, Eyles, Putrim, Stodart, and Radclyffe, from designs by Leslie, Hayter, Meadows, Bostock, Jenkins, Corbould, Chalon, Herbert, Parris, and other eminent hands.

Hazlitt and Ulrici, Lamb and Mrs. Jameson, have eloquently and acutely discussed the traits of the peerless female characters of the great dramatist; but the subject is inexhaustible, and, in this instance, is treated in a manner which will interest a less metaphysical and critical, and a more purely human and womanly class of readers—such as delight in anecdote, description, and apt quotation. The relation to the pictures is kept up with the text. There is individual taste, and fresh aspects, in the spirit and scope of the whole. The artistic merits of the work and the inevitable popularity of the subject, would alone make it successful as a gift publication; but the native feeling and talent of the author add new zest to the Gallery where we all so fondly linger. Our new cicerone is the wife of Dr. J. W. Palmer, who wrote the "Golden Dagon," so many fine oriental articles in the New Cyclopædia and the Atlantic Monthly, as well as the California sketches in "Putnam," and the popular comedy of the "Queen's Heart."—Boston Transcript.

THE SCHOOL SINGER, 37½ cents.
The "Musical Boquet,"—the last issued of the above,—is designed mainly for schools and classes, although a beautiful volume, also, for the parlor. It combines a succinct and clear elementary course of instruction in the science of vocal music, and a chaste and attractive selection of Songs, Duets, Trios, and Choruses, original and selected, with Pianoforte accompaniments. The words are also elevated, pure, and replete with the spirit of poetry. It has attained a wide circulation and has received the warmest commendations of the Press.
The publishers have discriminating commendations of the above from the Musical Review, Home Journal, New York Observer, Knickerbocker Magazine, Musical World, etc., and from distinguished musical professors and practical teachers, which will be sent on request. They are used in many of the best institutions in New York and elsewhere.
Single copies sent to Teachers on receipt of the price, pre-paid, for examination, with a view to introduction into classes. Address the Publishers,

Chess Monthly for November.
A HIGHLY INTERESTING NUMBER TO CHESS PLAYERS.
Morphy the Greatest Player in the World.
THIS NUMBER CONTAINS SIX OF Morphy's Games with the great German, Harrwitz, who was compelled to yield to the American's prowess. Also, the Progress of Morphy in Europe—The Blindfold Games in Paris—The Score in France—Incidents and Anecdotes—The Effect at Home, &c.
Mr. Lowenthal says that many of Morphy's Blindfold Games in Paris are worthy of the greatest masters when playing over the board. And Walker, the English Chess authority after Staunton, declares that one of the games deserves to be inscribed in letters of gold on the walls of the London Chess Club.

Commercial and Money Matters.

SATURDAY EVENING, Dec. 4.

MONEY, EXCHANGE, &C.—Exchange went up another quarter to-day, ruling at one per cent. premium. This was owing doubtless in part to the large remittances of the first and fourth. The payments of the fifth also fall due to-day, to-morrow being the Sabbath. We learn that the payments were very generally met. The fact that exchange ruled so low a few days since probably drew down the balances much lower than was anticipated. We heard some good judges to-day give the opinion that exchange would sink again to ¾ within the next ten days. Of that, however, parties interested will form an opinion for themselves and act accordingly.

Bank discounts are as usual 10 per cent., with plenty of money for all legitimate business purposes.

Gold continues a drug, retailing only in small lots at 1@1½. Street rates nominal, with few transactions at 1½@2 per cent. per month.

The St. Louis Democrat of Dec. 3, says:

Money matters are rather quiet. The bankers are doing less in local paper, though we learn of some selling at 12 per cent. Some of the Bankers say not so many time bills are offered as they would wish, while others say more are offered than they want at present. There is some disposition to advance the selling rate of sight exchange on New York to ¾, but it is so plentiful that it will hardly be done in the month. We still quote buying rates par to ¼, and selling at ½ prem. On New Orleans ⅝@1 per cent prem., selling.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Dec. 3, has the following:

The money market was a shade easier to-day, but still the demand for currency was fully equal to the supply. The regular houses continued to discount acceptable paper pretty freely for customers, and others who had good names to offer were accommodated outside at 12 to 18 per ct., so that there was no great pressure for loans in any quarter. The indications now are that the lowest point, as regards the supply of currency, has been about reached. The East has already contributed somewhat to check the downward tendency, and there were additional receipts from that quarter to-day, until the currency has become pretty largely mixed with Massachusetts, New York and Pennsylvania paper. The latter, so far as it is paid out by the leading houses, is made up entirely of the issues of first class banks, which are equal, or very nearly so, at all times, to exchange.

The market for Eastern Exchange was slightly firmer to-day, but the rates did not undergo any change. The offerings of private checks were not as liberal as previously noticed, and there were increased orders from abroad for Bankers' drafts. Gold remains dull. Bill sell readily at rates within the range of quotations:

	Buying.	Selling.
New York Sight	par	½@¾ prem.
Boston	⅛ dis.@par	¾ prem.
Philadelphia	par	½@¾ prem.
Baltimore	⅛ dis.	¾ prem.
New Orleans	¼ prem.	½@¾ prem.
American Gold	par	1.5@¾ prem.
New York 60 days	1@1¼ dis.
New Orleans "	¾@1¼ "

COMMERCIAL.—The Wheat market was characterized by greater activity to-day, at a further advance. On account of the small receipts, holders, under the pressure of orders from millers, had the advantage. At the opening No. 1 Red sold at $1.02@1.04 in store; but in the afternoon it advanced to $1.06@1.08 in store—with sales of about 4,000 bushels. Spring Wheat was also in active demand, and advanced 1@2c—closing firm. Nearly all the Wheat sold was for shipment to Michigan, Indiana, and the interior of this State for milling purposes.

There is an active demand for Corn by distillers and others, while the receipts are very trifling. Oats are not so brisk. Highwines, in view of the sudden advance in St. Louis, are firm at 22@22½c.

The receipts of Hogs to-day were very light, both of Live and Dressed. Notwithstanding this, however, the market was not so buoyant for Live—though it was better for Dressed. Operators in Pork seemed to be very much inclined to pause, as if in doubt whether the recent decline in Cincinnati is not the result of something else besides the weather; and with such a feeling, many held back, determined to wait and see what Monday will bring forth. The receipts, however, being small, the market had more of an inactive appearance than the prices indicate. The sales made to-day show a range of $5@5.25 gross for Heavy Hogs, and $4.75@5 for Light—which is but a shade below yesterday's figures.

The market for Dressed Hogs, however, was better, and prices advanced. Heavy Hogs sold at $6@6.31, and Light at $5@5.75. This inequality in the market for Live and Dressed Hogs, is caused, partly by the demand for Hogs by small packers who have no slaughter-houses, and partly because of the lightness of the Live Hogs coming to market. Live Hogs, too, have all along been proportionately higher than Dressed Hogs.

The Provision market is quiet but firm. Mess Pork is in demand at $16@16.25 for forward delivery; but holders are asking $16.50, at which most of them are firm. Bulk Meats are also firm. To-day we note a sale of 600 pcs. cured Shoulders at 5½c, and 3,000 Green Hams at 7½c. Lard is firm at 10½c,—the asking prices being generally a ¼c higher, and some even refuse to sell below 11c. We have no transactions to record.

[Correspondence Press and Tribune.]

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 3, 1858—2 P. M.

Market for Wheat steady, with light receipts. No. 1 Club in limited demand at 70@72c; extra Club quick at 80@83c.

Hogs active and receipts light. Heavy dressed Hogs sold readily to-day at $5.75@6 per cwt, and one lot to a clear pork packer at $6.25. Market closes firm.

Provisions are firm and moderately active. Sales to-day of 500 bbls Mess Pork at $16; 500 bbls Prime Pork at $11.50; 200 bbls Lard at 10½c.

HOG AND PROVISION TRADE.

[From the Louisville Democrat.]

BABYLON FALLEN!—We may well exclaim that Babylon the great has fallen! The glory of Cincinnati has parted from her borders, and she may set herself down by Ohio's banks and weep. The glory that has crowned her for years has departed, and now encircles the brow of a rival city. Louisville may now lay claim to the title, as the principal hog market in the world. Long has been a heavy market in tobacco and cotton, and now caps the climax by seizing Cincinnati's crown. The Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday reports the total receipts of hogs, up to Tuesday, as we learn by private dispatch, only 8,000, making a total of 172,161. By reference to our table, it will be seen our receipts were 174,862, without counting any in New Albany. The grand total is fully [illegible],000.

From the Cincinnati Gazette, Friday.

The heavy feeling noticed in the Hog market, at the close, last evening, was quite prominent to-day, under liberal receipts and unfavorable weather. The supply for the twenty-four hours reached 15,500 head. Hogs averaging 200 lbs and downwards, declined about 25c per 100 lbs, but extra heavy were sustained at $7—the demand for this grade, on Boston account, being equal to the offerings; but holders met buyers freely at this figure. The sales were to a fair extent, at $6.25 for 140 to 160 lb averages; $6.50 for 175 to 180 do.; $6.75 for 190 to 200 do, and $7 for 200 lb do, and upwards.

In the provision market, there was a mixed feeling, which it is difficult to represent in print. It was firm, and then it wasn't firm. On the whole it may be said that, for present delivery, the feeling was heavy, while buyers for the future were tolerably bold. Half a million pounds of bulk meats for March and April, at 6¼@6½ for shoulders, [illegible] for sides; while for present delivery [illegible] offered at 6¼@8¼ without finding buyers. Mess Pork brought $17.00, with free sellers at the close, and less disposition on the part of buyers to operate. Lard was sustained with more firmness than any other article of the hog product, at [illegible] per barrel, for present and future delivery, and [illegible] keg, for the future, at 12c. For the [illegible] the spot, 11½c was refused this afternoon. [illegible] Bacon there were sales of 125 hhds, [illegible], and 10 do. Shoulders at 6¾c. We [illegible] yesterday, an offer of 5,000 bbls Mess [illegible] New York account, deliverable there [illegible] months, at $18. A buyer was found [illegible] but the seller, upon being telegraphed, replied that a bull had been found in [illegible] who took 5,000, and 3,000 bbls in [illegible].

[illegible] York quotations for hogs and provisions, [illegible] by telegraph this evening, compared [illegible] Cincinnati prices as follows:

	New York.	Cincinnati.
[illegible]	7 @ 7¼	[illegible]
[illegible]	16 @ 18	16 [illegible]
[illegible]	10 @ 11¼	[illegible]
[illegible] delivery	11¼ @ 11¾	[illegible]

[From the Louisville Journal, Friday.]

[illegible] a few lots of 200 to 300 hogs [illegible] at $6.50 for heavy, no other [illegible] were made. There were some large [illegible] in barrel pork, including 2000 bbls [illegible] $17.25, 500 bbls. at $17 50, 60 days [illegible], 500 bbls old at $16 75, and 100 bbls [illegible]. In piece meats the only sale reported [illegible] 10,000 hams at 7½ cents. The weather turned warm again and only a limited [illegible] killed yesterday.

[From the Peoria (Ill.) Transcript, 3d.]

[illegible] thousand head have been [illegible] the commencement of the [illegible]. Tyng & Brotherson have [illegible] thousand purchased in the [illegible] are yet to come in. Thus far [illegible] weight of those pickled has fallen [illegible] pounds each from last year's [illegible] the number killed may be [illegible] is thought the amount packed [illegible] exceed the usual quantity. The [illegible] seems to fall short in about the [illegible]. A much larger scope of country [illegible] has been tributary to our market [illegible] has enabled our Peoria dealers [illegible] their present heavy operations in [illegible] staple of Pork. A large [illegible] was brought in by wagon to-[illegible] readily at the following prices: [illegible] 200 lbs and over, $5.50; weighing [illegible] lbs, $5; 150 to 200 lbs, $4.50 and [illegible].

[From the St. Louis Democrat, 3d.]

[illegible] too warm for killing, but most [illegible] are busy to-day; they are not [illegible] holding off on account of [illegible] yesterday, 700 head sold at $6.25@6.50, dividing on 200 lbs; also 200 heavy hogs, averaging some 230 lbs, at $6.35 all round. The packing at this point is likely to fall off this year. Up to this time the two heaviest houses have only killed 6,000 to 8,000 head each.

From the Detroit Free Press.

The increase in rates of Dressed Hogs still continues, $5.75 being the figure now paid for lots of good weight. The sales yesterday were as follows: 34, 180 lbs@250 lbs weight, at $5.50@5.62½; 30, 250 lbs@300 lbs weight, at $5@5.75; 80, averaging 275 lbs, at $5.60, and 80 at $5.37½@5.62½.

THE
OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY,
PROFESSOR WOOD'S
HAIR RESTORATIVE.

SAYS THE ST. LOUIS (MO.) DEMOCRAT: Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his Hair Tonic. Such evidences must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, nor useless puffery from the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1858.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:

GENTLEMEN:—Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has assumed its natural color, and I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife, at the age of fifty-two, has used it with the same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself. I am truly yours,
A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 23, 1858.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure.
FINLEY JOHNSON.

The undersigned, Rev. J. K. Bragg, is a minister in regular standing, and pastor of the Orthodox Church at Brookfield, Mass. He is a gentleman of great influence and universally beloved.
WM. DYER.

BROOKFIELD, January 12, 1858.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having made a trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effect has been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff and a constant tendency to itching with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored my hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure or profit.
Yours truly, J. K. BRAGG.

The Restorative is put up in Bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds half a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars a bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for three dollars a bottle.

FOREST CITY WATER CURE.
CLEVELAND, OHIO.

THIS INSTITUTION IS DELIGHTFULLY situated on the outskirts of a beautiful forest, within the limits of the city of Cleveland and 2½ miles from the Post Office. The building is new, of brick, and furnished in the best style. The bath rooms are supplied with pure, soft spring water. The large patronage which this establishment is at present receiving from Chicago and other western cities, is a flattering recommendation of its popularity and flourishing condition. Dr. Gross and lady, formerly of the Lake View Water Cure, near Chicago, are connected with this institution.

ECONOMY AND COMFORT.

A Ton of Coal Saved during the Winter, and the House made Warmer than before! "We like that." is heard from all sides. "But how is it to be done?" In the easiest way imaginable. Get one of TOVREY'S ADJUSTABLE DOOR SPRINGS, and one of the EXCELSIOR WEATHER STRIPS, and your ton of Coal is saved, or, it may be, two tons, before spring. The SPRINGS will always keep your doors shut, and the WEATHER STRIPS will arrest the stream of cold air that now flows in, day and night, beneath them. Try them at once and begin to save your money. To be had at 201 Lake street.

MORTGAGE SALE.—WHEREAS, BY A certain Indenture of Mortgage dated the twenty-fifth day of February, A. D. 1857, and recorded in the Recorder's Office in and for Cook County, in the State of Illinois, in Book 29 of Mortgages, page 465, William B. Herrick and Martha J., his wife, of the city of Chicago, county of Cook and State of Illinois, did grant, bargain, sell and convey unto me, Charles Macalester, the premises hereinafter described to secure the payment of his, the said William B. Herrick's certain promissory note for the sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000), bearing even date with said Mortgage, and payable five (5) years after the date thereof to the order of the said Charles Macalester, the same being for money loaned by said Macalester to said Herrick, and whereas the said William B. Herrick did therein agree to pay the said Charles Macalester semi-annual interest on the said sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000) at the rate of ten (10) per cent. per annum, to said interest was secured to be paid by the said William B. Herrick's ten (10) certain promissory notes, bearing even date with said Mortgage, and payable to the order of said Charles Macalester at the times and in the manner following, to-wit: Each of said promissory notes being for the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), and payable respectively in six, twelve, eighteen, twenty-four and thirty months, three years, three years and six months, four years, four years and six months and five years after date thereof. And, whereas, it was provided in said mortgage that if default should be made in the payment of any one of said installments of interest as the time and in the manner in said promissory notes given for said interest provided as the same became due and payable, then at the election of said Charles Macalester, his executors, administrators or assigns, said principal sum secured thereby should at once become due and payable, and it should be lawful for the said Charles Macalester, his executors, administrators or assigns to sell and dispose of the lands and premises mentioned in said mortgage and hereinafter described and all benefit and equity of redemption of the said William B. Herrick and Martha J., his wife, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns therein at public auction, having first given sixty (60) days notice of the time and place of said sale by publication in any daily news paper published in said city of Chicago, and as the attorney of the said William B. Herrick and Martha J., his wife, for that purpose in said mortgage duly authorized, constituted and appointed, or in the name of the said William B. Herrick and Martha J., his wife, their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, to make, execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof a good and sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance, in the law for the same in fee simple, and out of the money arising from such sale to retain the whole amount of said promissory note for said sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); and said notes for interest thereof, which shall at that time of said notes or not, together with the costs and charges of advertisement and sale of the same.

Now, therefore, default having been made in the payment of two installments of interest of one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, due on the 25th day of February, A. D. 1858, and on the 25th day of August, A. D 1858, respectively; Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of the authority in me vested by the said mortgage, I shall sell at public auction, on Tuesday, the 25th day of January, A. D. 1859, at 11 o'clock A. M., at the North door of the Court House, in the city of Chicago, county of Cook, and State of Illinois, the lands and premises mentioned in said mortgage, and described as follows:

The north half (N. ½) of section number thirteen (13), in township number forty (40), north of range number thirteen (13), east of 3d P. M., containing three hundred and twenty (320) acres of land, more or less, lying and being in the County of Cook and State of Illinois, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging or in any wise appertaining; and all the right and equity of redemption of the said William B. Herrick and Martha J., his wife, their heirs and assigns therein.

MORTGAGE SALE.—WHEREAS Joseph Hurst executed and delivered unto the undersigned, James Warren, John W. Hart and Elihu L. Mix, a certain Indenture of Mortgage of the premises hereinafter described, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, A. D. 1858, to secure the payment of four certain Promissory Notes therein mentioned, with a condition therein, that in case of default in the payment of the said notes either of principal or of interest on the days and at the times whenever the same should become due and payable, the whole of said principal and interest secured by the said promissory notes in the said mortgage mentioned should thereupon become immediately due and payable. Which said Mortgage was recorded in the Recorder's Office in Kane county, in the State of Illinois, on the fifth day of July, A. D. 1858, in Record Book 51 at page 411. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that default having been made in the payment of the first note due under said mortgage and by its terms, the whole of said notes thereupon became due and payable. We, the undersigned, shall, on the twentieth day of December, A. D. 1858, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and in pursuance thereof sell at the North door of the Court House in the City of Chicago, Illinois, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following described pieces or parcels of land situate lying and being in the County of Kane, state of Illinois, to wit: Commencing at the centre of the Galena and Chicago Union Railroad on the East line of lands owned by Charles B. Tucker and running thence North three-quarters degree West along the West line of section one (1), township forty (40), North range eight (8), thirty-two and 25-100 chains to Truman Gilbert's land, thence North eighty-five and three-fourths (85¾) degrees East twenty (20) chains, hence south three-fourths degrees; East parallel with the first line forty-four and 69-100 chains (44 69-100), thence South eighty-nine degrees West four chains and thirty-six links (4 36-100) to the centre of said railroad, thence along the centre of said railroad twenty-two (22) chains and sixty-three (63) links to the place of beginning containing seventy-nine and 52-100 acres (79 52-0). Also a certain other piece containing just five acres, lying in the Northwest quarter of section twelve in a square form bounded on the South by the Army Trail and on the East by land owned by Daniel Wheeler, the same being the premises described in said mortgage together with all the right, title, interest and equity of redemption of the said Joseph Hurst in and to the aforesaid premises.

STATE OF ILLINOIS—COUNTY OF COOK—SS.—Cook County Court of Common Pleas, January Term, 1859.

Johanna Gitter vs. Henry Gitter.—In Chancery.

Affidavit of the non-residence of Henry Gitter, defendant above named, having been filed in the office of the clerk of said Cook County Court of Common Pleas, notice is hereby given to the said Henry Gitter that the complainant filed her bill of complaint in said Court, on the Chancery side thereof, on the twenty-fourth day of November, 1858, and that a summons thereupon issued out of said Court against said defendant, returnable on the first Monday of January next, 1859, as is by law required. Now, unless you, the said Henry Gitter, shall personally be and appear before said Cook County Court of Common Pleas of Cook county, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be holden at Chicago, in said county, on the first Monday of January, 1859, and plead, answer or demur to the said complainant's bill of complaint, the same and the matters and things therein charged and stated will be taken as confessed, and a decree entered against you according to the prayer of said bill.

Buchanan on Mexico.

Rumors from Washington, which have [illegible] of the designs of the Administration u[illegible] Mexico, prove to have their foundation [illegible] fact. Mr. Buchanan, as we learn by a te[illegible]graphic synopsis of his Message, read in C[illegible]gress yesterday, after reciting the ca[illegible] which have led to a suspension of diplom[illegible] relations with that Government, recomme[illegible] the establishing of military posts in Chi[illegible]hua and Sonora, and urges the anarchy a[illegible] imbecility of the Mexican Government, a[illegible] the danger of the incursions of hostile [illegible]dians into our settlements in Arizona, a[illegible] lame excuse for the lawless act. We love f[illegible] dealing and honesty in all men—in hi[illegible] officials, entrusted with the welfare and hon[illegible] of the country, above all others; hence o[illegible] respect for Mr. Buchanan would have bee[illegible] vastly more profound had he spread befo[illegible] Congress the true reasons that have impelle[illegible] him to embody the substance of the Osten[illegible] Manifesto in his stump speech. Had he sai[illegible] plainly and frankly, "Gentlemen, I hav[illegible] "promised the South to do certain thing[illegible] "among them to do what I am able for th[illegible] "dismemberment of Mexico and the acquis[illegible] "tion of Cuba. I have agreed to believe tha[illegible] "Human Slavery is a Christian and em[illegible] "nently Democratic institution, and upo[illegible] "that belief I have further agreed to ac[illegible] "Mexico is weak; she has no powerfu[illegible] "friends. Her land is especially well adap[illegible] "ed to slave labor. The South demands to b[illegible] "put in possession. I take advantage of i[illegible] "ternal discords, and urge upon you the pr[illegible] "priety of aiding me in my endeavors to kee[illegible] "my promises to the power that elected me an[illegible] "from which I hope for an election again!" That would have been frank and honest, and would have commanded listeners among th[illegible] tens of thousands, who will now turn away with a sneer of contempt from the flimsy ex[illegible]cuses, under which the President now endea[illegible]vors to cover the partisan designs of those wh[illegible] have made him what he is. Explicit lan[illegible]guage like that would have had another ad[illegible]vantage. In the discussion of the merits o[illegible] the question involved we should have had no difficulty in getting at the marrow of the matter at once. "We want to extend Slavery and are willing to despoil a weak and friendless neighbor to gratify that want," would be the unmistakable creed of the South. "We want no more Slavery, and will not consent to do a double wrong that Slavery may be extended," would have been the reply of the North, and the question could have gone to the country with little argument and without delay. Now, however, enveloped in the language of diplomacy, veiled with hypocritical pretences, a winter must be spent and perhaps a campaign must pass before the issue will be presented to the American people as it really is. We have faith that they will act as becomes a great and enlightened nation, anxious for justice in its dealing with other powers, and anxious for the preservation of that freedom which is our heritage.

Report of the Post Master General.

We are indebted to Post Master Cook for an early copy of the Report of the Post Master General for the year 1858, from which we make a synopsis of its most material points.

EXPRESS MAIL AGENCY.

The value and advantages of Express Agents to accompany mails on the great routes from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, westward, is elaborately pointed out. The Report states that the through agency established between Philadelphia and Cincinnati has been changed so as to make Chicago instead of Cincinnati a terminus, and that the express mail will be conveyed between these cities in thirty-six hours.

GREAT MAIL ROUTES.

The fact is prominently set forth that from and after July next the mails are to be conveyed between New Orleans and Washington in three and a half days, being a reduction of 24 hours on the present running time.

The St. Louis and New Orleans mail will hereafter be mainly conveyed by land, for the purpose of avoiding the delays, irregularities and enormous expense of steamboat transportation. The lettings are to be divided as follows: From St. Louis to Cairo, three times a week; and from Nashville to Cairo, three times; and from Cairo to Memphis, daily; and from Memphis to New Orleans, daily. The cost of the mail service by these routes between Cairo and New Orleans will be $262,618 per annum. The steamboat service between the same points cost $432,333—showing a saving of $169,715. The new service will also be more regular, and the trips quicker.

OTHER ROUTES.

The Report is jubilant over the success of the California Overland Route, and sanguine of its future usefulness. A long review of the Isthmus mail routes is gone into, giving the cause of the failure of some, and the expense of maintaining the others. The Tehuantepec route is highly extolled, and is called the favorite one with the government and people of the United States, and it is warmly recommended that a contract be made with certain parties to convey the California mails over it.

The Utah route has been so improved that trips through from St. Joseph to Salt Lake City, are performed in thirty-eight days, each way.

EXPENSES OF THE DEPARTMENT.

The expenses of the Department over and above its resources, have regularly increased ever since the reduction of postage. It would, however, be obviously erroneous to suppose that this charge upon the Treasury is to progress in a ratio proportionate to what it has been for the last few years. Our postal system, he says, is now extended over the whole country, from one ocean to the other. There can be but little further expense resulting from overland connection with California, except one other route commonly called the Northern route. No other is now thought of as likely to become necessary.

The Report sagely informs Congress that the expense of mail transportation could be materially reduced by abandoning railroad, steamboats and four horse coaches conveyances, and adopting two-horse hack and horseback modes of transportation! Ox wagons and Indian runners on snow shoes would be still more economical.

HOW TO RAISE THE WIND.

The Postmaster General recommends that the rates of letter postage be raised from three to five cents, and that the postage upon newspapers and pamphlets be doubled! and thinks that the effect of those recommendations would be to raise the revenue from postage about $3,500,000. He proposes in lieu of the franking privilege now allowed by law to members of Congress, that the Secretary of the Senate, or such other officer as may be designated for the purpose, furnish the members with postage stamps to be used on all letters, public documents, &c., transmitted by them in the mails, and keep an account of the stamps furnished to each member, to be paid for out of the contingent fund of the House; all letters, &c., to members of Congress to be prepaid at mailing offices. The transmission of franked books to Utah cost the Government $7,000.

NUMBER OF POST OFFICES.

The whole number of Post Offices in the United States are 28,977, of which the President directly appoints the holders of 400—the remainder are filled by Bureau. The number of offices established during the year has been 2,123, and discontinued 750. Number of Postmasters appointed during the year was 8,253; of these 4,895 were to fill vacancies occasioned by resignations, 993 by removals, 276 by deaths, 2,121 new offices.

TRANSPORTATION.

The length of mail routes in the United States is as follows:

By Railroads	24,431	miles
By Steamboats	[illegible]	"
By Coaches	[illegible]	"
By Inferior Grades	153,[illegible]	"
Total	260,[illegible]	"

The cost of transportation was as follows:

Railroad	$2,[illegible]	or 11 cts. a mile.
Steamboats	1,[illegible]	27⅘c
Coach	1,[illegible]	8⅘c
Inferior Grades	1,[illegible]	8⅘c
Total cost	$7,[illegible]

Railroad rates have been increased 1,901 [illegible]
